

TAHOMA

Dear Bonnie,
 Well, another year is gone.
 Hallelujah! But we've really had fun messin' up each other's hair during lunch. By the way, you need a comb. But you have added to the appearance of this old building. (Even if it is now known as a dump)
 and I have had fun palin' around with you. Lots of luck next year. Hope I see lots more of you & your luscious sweaters!

Love & Kisses
 Jeannie.

Dear Bonnie,
 Our fit classes really seen swell. Have fun this summer. I hope I will see you some time this summer, but if I don't see you next fall.

Jeannie Haldaway

Dear Bonnie,
 I have known you
 for quite a while now and I sure think you swell.
 I hope you will be in more of my classes next semester.
 Good luck and loads of success.
 Sincerely,
 Jane Burkhardt

Dear Bonnie

It's going to be a sad day for me this Friday but for you, happy. You're very lucky and have a few more or should I say one more year at Stadium.
I shall never forget the great times I've had in B-6 in last three semesters. Cousin is some fellow, ~~friend~~ friend and even foe.
(This is a much better pun) It sure must be terrible sitting next to that old dope every day of the semester. Well that is neither super nor suck. I sure hope that you will have a grand time at Stadium in the one more year left or two maybe three, can't tell about how smart you're going to be.
Here's wishing you lots of luck in years to come.

Dear Bonnie, having
it's been swell class of my you in my class. I hope again in some classes next year. I hope you have lots
of luck in the future.
Love Margaret

Dear Bonnie
Our Lit. class has sure been fun even though it was a little
boring at times.
Hope your in some of my classes
next year &
lots of luck.

Dear Bonnie,
It has been
loads of fun knowing
you, and having you in my Home Rel. class.

Lots of happiness and success to a swell girl

Dear Bonnie,
I was really surprised to find out that you knew Church. Oh joy!!
I won't if he's still

A boy and a girl, looking toward the future — a future holding unknown problems which they will have to solve.

In our future, whatever it may hold, our thoughts will return many times to our high school life. It is hoped that this 1945 Tahoma will serve its purpose of recording a year's activities in a manner which will always bring back living memories of the Brown Castle. Our theme — THE FUTURE.

— THE EDITOR

Dear Bonnie -
Do love lots
I love looking back on my high school life. Hope you're as happy as I am.

They should be here right now — yet they are far away. Although with us but a short time ago, many Stadium boys who would be graduating with us now are in training or fighting overseas — fighting to preserve the privileges they enjoyed here, for all the others who will come to Stadium.

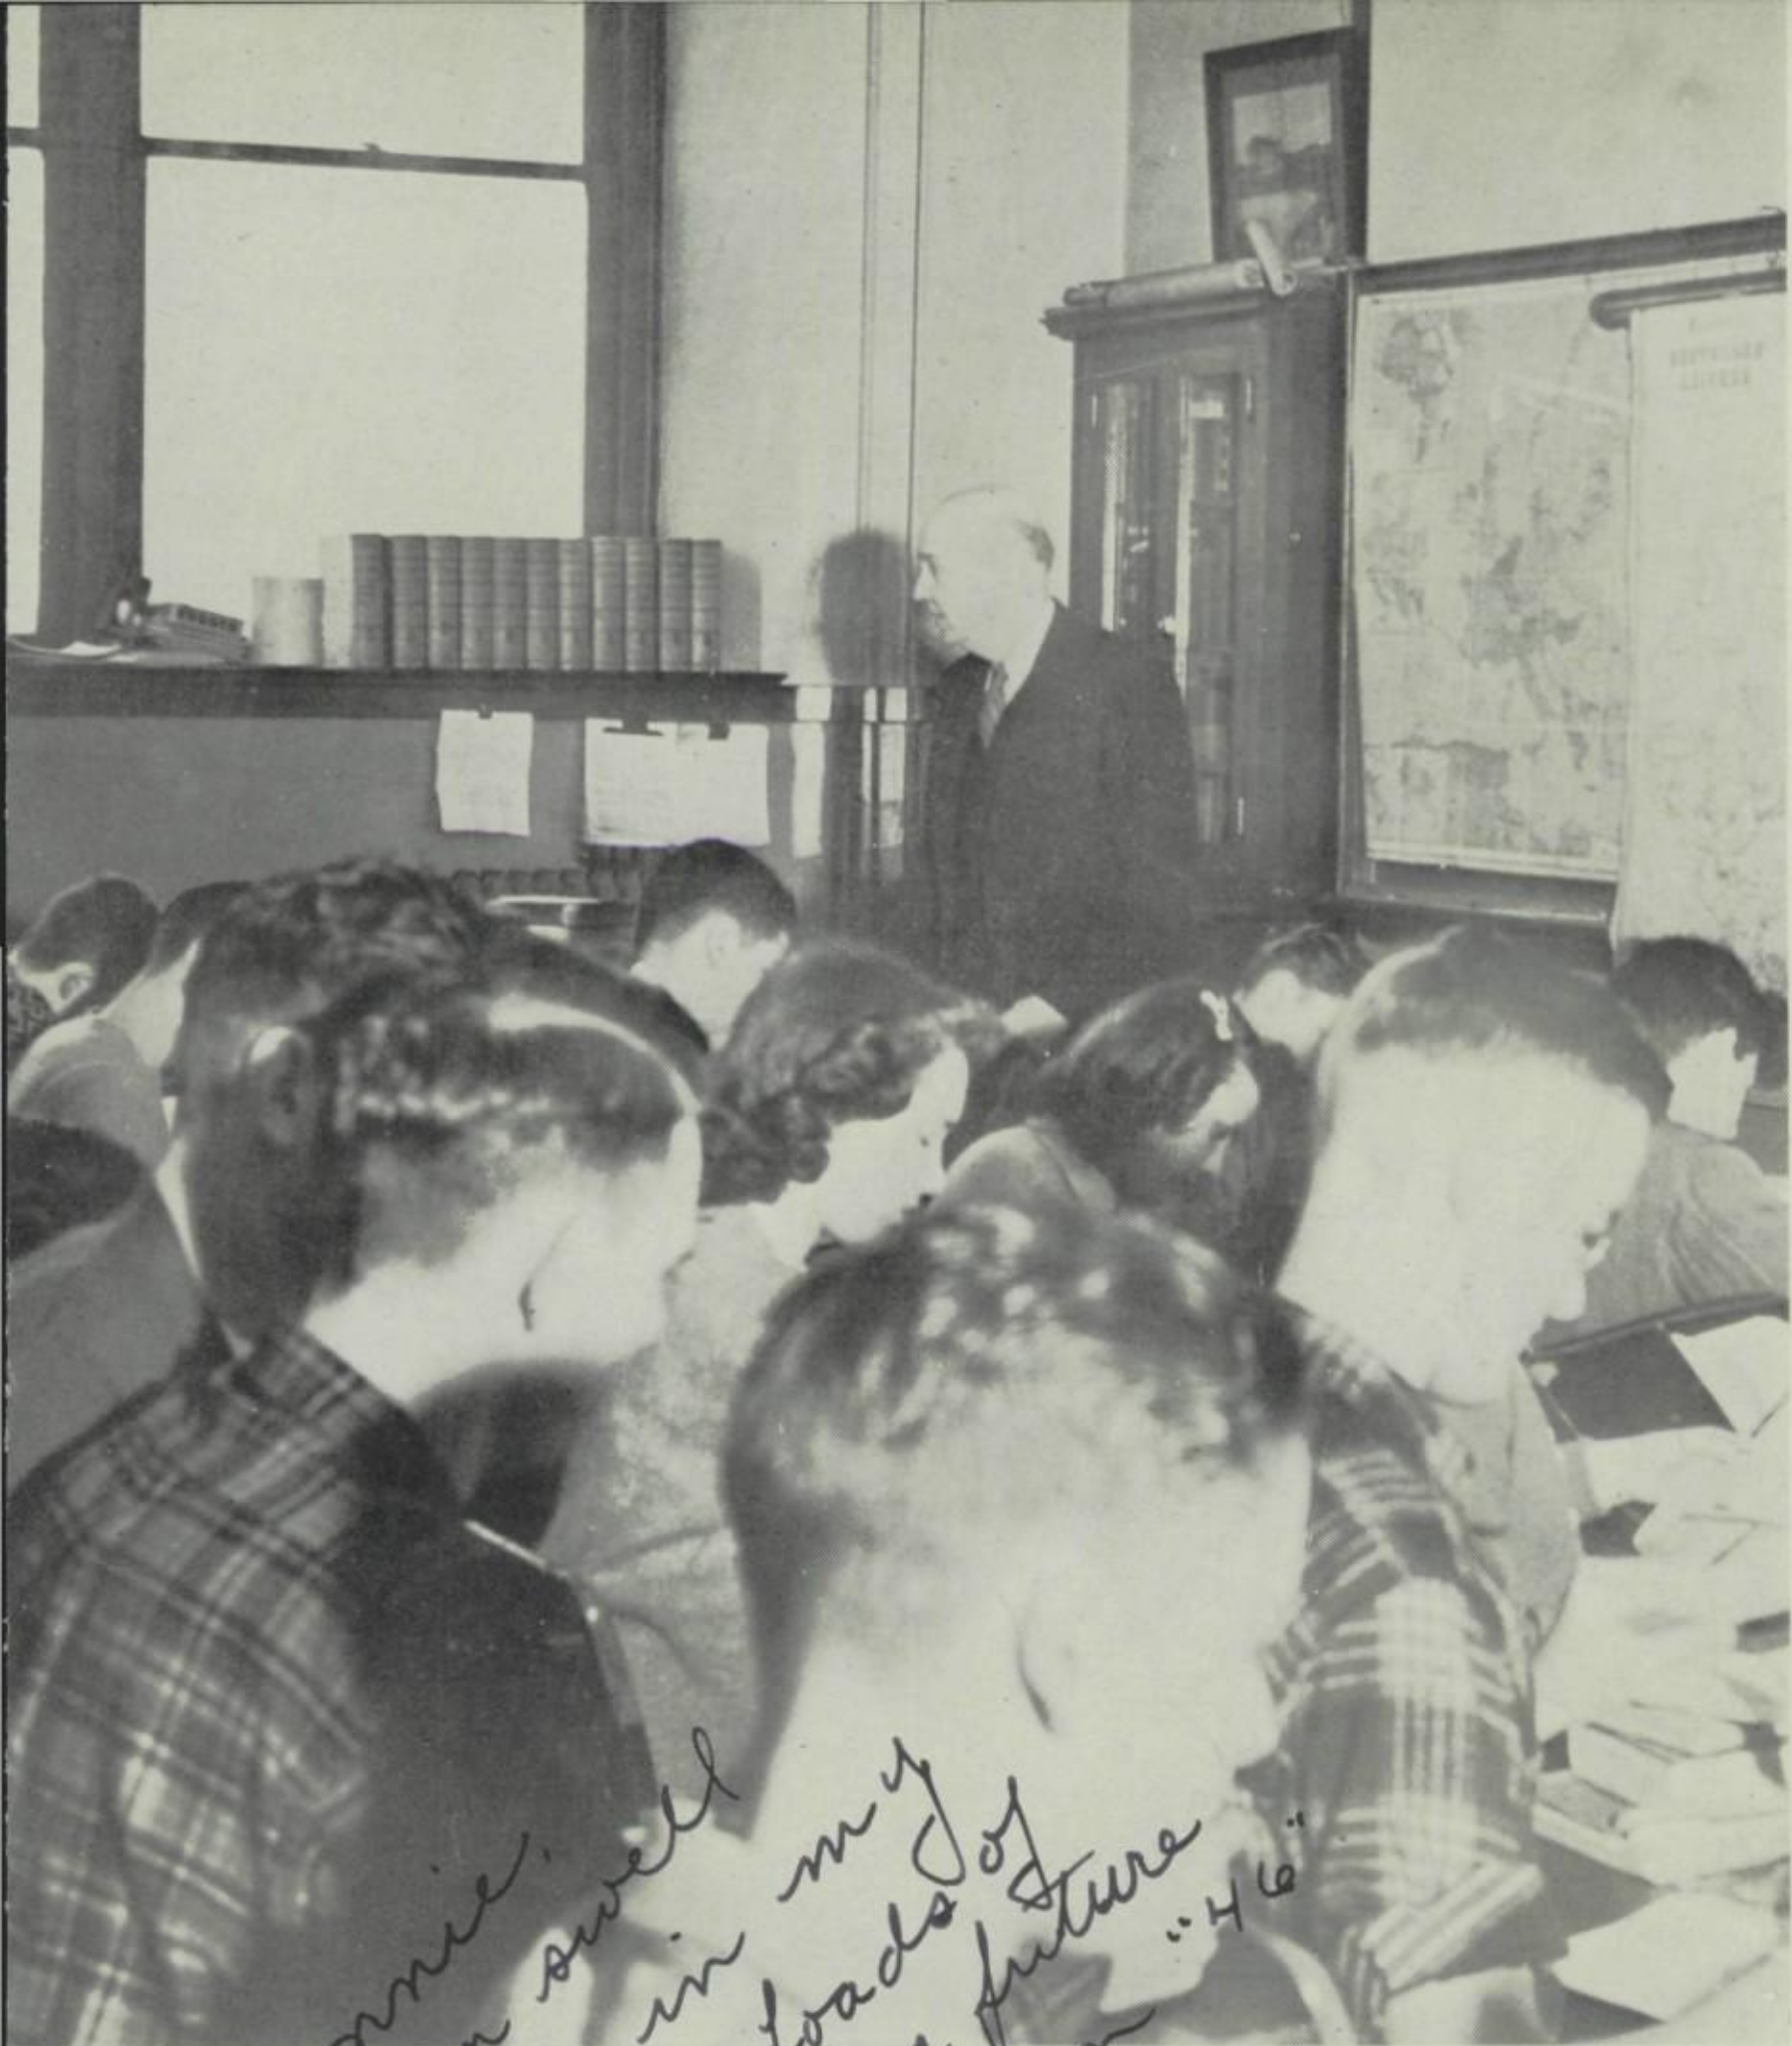

To those boys of the Class of '45 who are already in the service of our country we dedicate this Tahoma.

Dear Bonnie,
 It's been swell in my having you sit. loads of studies and lit. your future good luck in Rasmussen "46" years. Clarice

Working to train the minds of today's youth to meet the problems of the future is the difficult task of the faculty. Striving to make better citizens of high school students, they devote much time and energy to their task. Their faith will be realized when these youths apply the lessons learned at Stadium in helping to settle the many problems facing the country today.

Dear Bonnie:
We've had loads of fun to gether and I hope I see you around a lot cause you really a swell gal. Remember

The classes of Stadium signify the goals for which each student is ever working. Now, as never before, this is true.

Seniors, especially, look ahead with anticipation to the lives they are to experience when their high school careers are over. Although the boys, for the time being only, have their near future mapped out for them, there will come the time when they, too, will really enjoy planning their future years.

when Dick used to be around... Oh such fond memories... Maybe one of these days he'll be home again and you'll read the little announcement in the paper... Mr. & Mrs. announce the... and etc. Oh well that will be quite a while with the moon on and all. Be good and I hope to see you again real soon. Love Bob

SENIOR CLASS

Many effects of the war were felt by the Class of '45, in which the girls outnumbered the boys nearly three to two. For the second year the class chose caps and gowns as graduation dress, this time wearing royal blue ones with gold trim. It was the first time in years that a Stadium graduating group received its diplomas in May, the commencement exercises being held May 28.

One advantage of the smaller class was that it enabled the seniors again to have their group picture hung in the hall. This had not been practical in the last few years.

Because of rationing and shortages a banquet was not held this year. A get together of the whole class was made possible, however, by means of the baccalaureate service set for May 27.

Leading the Senior Class until his departure for the navy was capable Jim Clinton as president. Tom Galbraith, vice president, then assumed the duties of the presidency. Dorothy Christoffersen then moved up from secretary to vice president and Dolores Klaiber was chosen to serve as secretary. Alice Bergstrom remained in her position as treasurer. Representatives to Student Council were Ann Wegener and Miles Custis.

As juniors the class elected John Schlarb, president; Bruce Stewart, vice president; Shirley Halladay, secretary; Cliff Hoff, treasurer; Doreen Wilcox, girls' representative; Miles Custis, boys' representative.

In their first year the class was directed by Sandy Shaub, president; Marion Long, vice president; Jane Parker, secretary; Margaret Armstrong, treasurer; Nancy Hart and Bruce Stewart, Student Council representatives.

With the real atmosphere of a beach resort, the senior sweater dance was held April 20 with the clever theme of "Coney Island." Betty Gillespie and Bob Lessley were co-chairmen of the affair, which was the only social event sponsored by the class.

"Wyotana," this year's opera, claimed the talents of many seniors, including Dolores Klaiber, Harry Aldrich, Leon Clark and Paul Anderson, who had leading roles.

The class play, "Ghost Wanted," was presented on April 26 and 27. Principal parts were taken by Paul Anderson, Alice Bergstrom, Beverly Farrell and Gordon Marvik.

Active in Girls' Club were Nancy Hart, president; Betty Gillespie, vice president, and Pat Green treasurer. The department chairmen were Jane Hagen, welfare; Helen Veatch, service, and Margie Wolf, fellowship.

Offices in Boys' Club were held by Bruce Stewart, president, and Miles Custis, vice president. The commissioners were: Harvey Bottiger, public relations; Tom Galbraith, athletics; Art Nylander, social; Frank Veith, welfare; John White, morale.

The field of journalism was well represented by seniors, with Shirley Baker, editor of the fall World and The Tahoma, and Helen Veatch, editor of The World in the spring. Wanda Hanson served as business manager of The World for the entire year and Lois Peck acted as business manager of The Tahoma.

Right: Bob Lessley and Betty Gillespie were co-chairmen for the senior sweater dance, "Coney Island," held in April.

Above: Meriting valedictorian honors were both Helen Veatch and Phyllis Johnson, while Shirley Miller claimed the salutatorian position.

JUNIOR CLASS

Laying a sturdy foundation for leadership in the world of tomorrow, the Junior Class enthusiastically assumed many responsibilities in Castle activities. Rolf Falk led this energetic group as president, assisted by the other cabinet members: Walt Hansen, vice president; Marjorie Scholdsten, secretary; Berenice Brewitt, treasurer; Bob Steinseifer and Betty Lou Goore, representatives to Student Council.

As "froshies" they placed their confidence in a corps of officers consisting of: Bob Steinseifer, president; Jack Waechter, vice president; Paul Appling, secretary; Phyllis Kurrell, treasurer; Walt Cumbo and Marjie Nilsen, student Council representatives.

Twinkling stars, fir trees sparkling with fluffy snow, and colorful, swishing formals set the scene for one of the most important social functions of the year, the Junior Prom, held early in December. Co-chairmen Clare Duerfeldt and Gene Bolstad harmonized to produce a memorable "Winter Rhapsody."

Numerous honors were captured by vigorous members of the Junior Class. They were represented in Girls' Council by Jean McCrea, secretary; Dayle Hoegh, chairman of the social department; Jackie Brown, service chairman; and Beth DeMille, Mary Swanes and Phyllis Kurrell, junior representatives. Active in Boys' Club work were Bob Steinseifer, secretary, and Tom Baker, treasurer. Cynthia Harris proved her pep as yell duchess.

Prominent in the journalistic field, Beverly Leach was selected by the junior cabinet to edit the 1946 Tahoma, after serving as feature editor of The World. Marion Eldridge was chosen to manage the business end of the annual. Another active journalist was Lois Kenney, news editor of The World during the spring.

Several junior girls received the coveted honor of membership in Triple S. They were Maudie Boyle, Berenice Brewitt, Adele Donion, Clare Duerfeldt, Shirley Fields, Pat Harris, Meryl Johnson, Valerie Kneeland, Lois Kenney, Jean McCrea, Pearl Metzler, Joanne Peterson, Colleen Pickert, Marilyn Powell and Jacqueline Stephenson.

Showing outstanding athletic ability, Tom Baker and Jack Waechter were chosen co-captains of next year's football team. Other stars in the field of sports included Bill Kowalski, Don Warter, Dwayne Westlin, Alan Gord, John Walters, Dick Abrams, Ed Werner, Gene Steinauer, Bob Steinseifer, Dick Nicholson and Jim Powers.

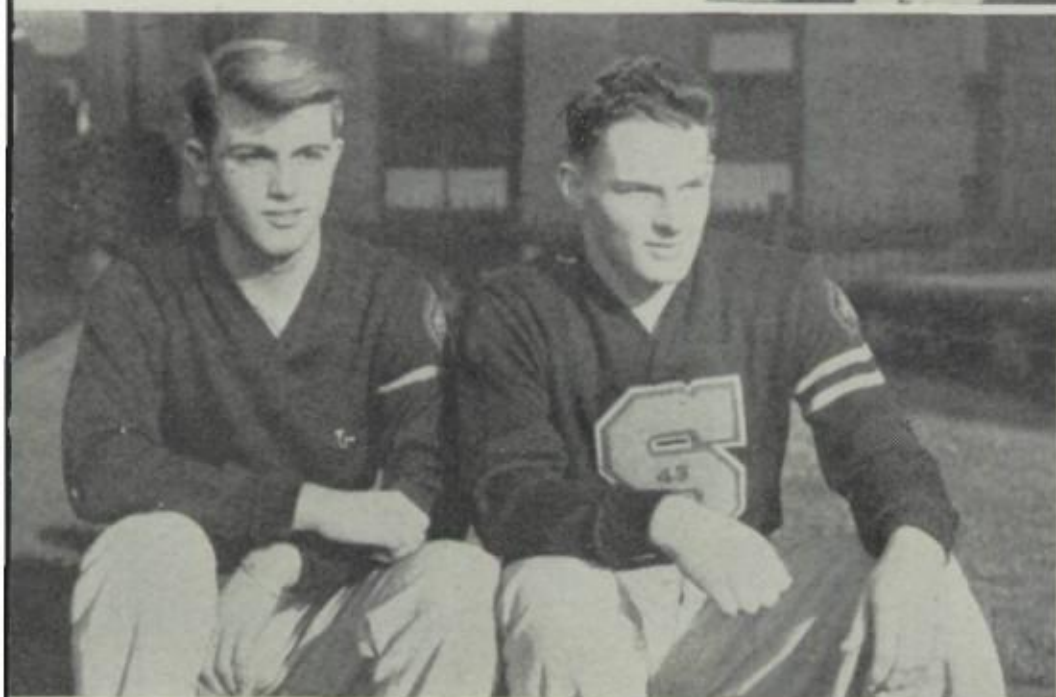

The Junior Class mourned the loss of one of its most active and popular members, Janet Hufford, whose sudden passing in February shocked the entire school.

Last social event of the year was the annual "Farewell to Seniors" dance in May, sponsored by the juniors in honor of the graduating class.

Right: Presiding over the 1944 soph May dance were Joan Niesen, queen, and Edna Lou Enright and Patt MacPherson, attendants.

Right: For the Farewell To Seniors Dance held in May, Pat Shea and Doug Johnson were chosen co-chairmen.

Above: Jack Waechter and Tom Baker will be co-captains of the 1945 football team.

Above: In charge of the junior prom "Winter Rhapsody" were Clare Duerfeldt and Gene Bolstad.

Entering into school activities with vigor and enthusiasm, the Sophomore Class, "babies" of the Brown Bastille, showed promise and capability for the future. Peppy, genial Ken Addis led the class through its first year as president. Assisting him were Tom Rigney, vice president; Ronald Smith, secretary; Jim Malstrom, treasurer; Wells Anderson and Evelyn Gagliardi, representatives to Student Council.

Chosen to represent the "froshies" on Girls' Council were Ginger Wolf, Joanne Knapp and Virginia Gundstrom.

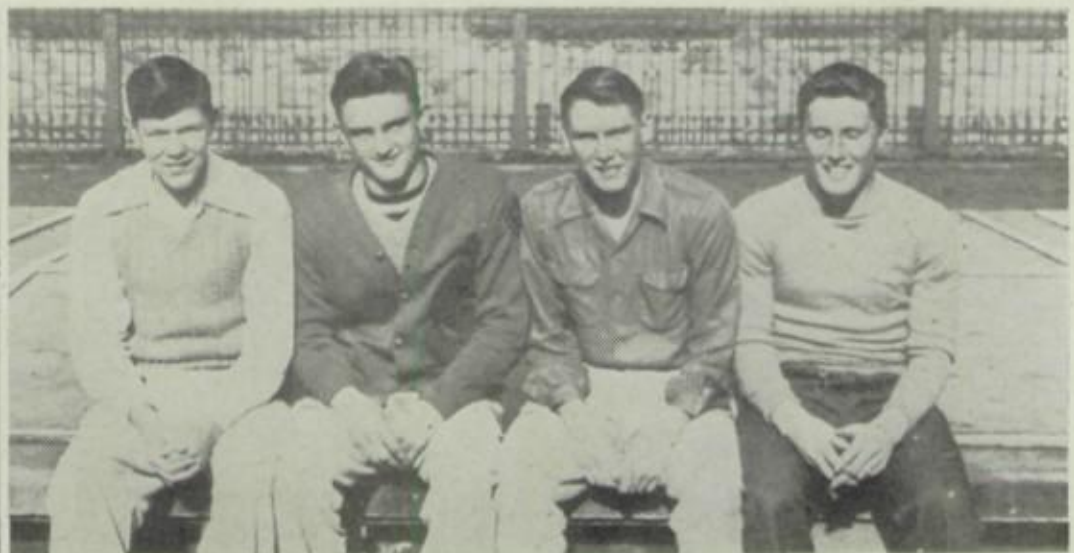

Marsha York was the only sophomore girl admitted into Triple S, and she also served as co-chairman of the annual spring carnival.

Several boys of the "younger generation" made an outstanding record in athletics. Among them were Walt Espeland, Garry Hersey, Harry Nygard, Paul Johnson, Wells Anderson, Ray Spalding and Bruce Andreasen.

Climaxing their first year at Stadium, the sophomores sponsored their only social event of the year, the annual May dance, presided over by a queen and her attendants. Stiles Wegener and Peggy Gagliardi were co-chairmen of this elaborate affair.

Co-chairmen for the sophs' May dance were Peggy Gagliardi and Stiles Wegener.

Four sophomores outstanding in sports were Ron Tuttle, Bruce Andreasen, Harry Nygard and Garry Hersey.

H O N O R A C T I V I T I E S

As a boy carefully studies the list of honor clubs of the city, he thoughtfully considers the ones to which he may belong in his future life. The various honor activities and clubs at Stadium help to prepare high school youths to work hard to achieve the highest, not only for the present but for their lives in the future.

Hard work is required before one can participate in these special activities, but the satisfaction of belonging will always remain.

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

Bidding a fond farewell to life in the "Brown Castle," the Class of 1945 will look bravely into the future at the impressive commencement ceremonies on May 28. Besides being the smallest graduating class in over 15 years, this group is also the first to receive diplomas in May, and the first to wear colorful blue and gold caps and gowns.

After comparing the experiences of recent years, it was decided that a more effective and well-balanced program could be attained by having an outside speaker and two student speakers, a boy and a girl. Until recent years the valedictorian and salutatorian were automatically selected, supplemented by a faculty choice and a student choice. Contrary to this tradition, the two student speakers, Orvis Harrelson and Nancy Hart, were elected by the entire senior honor roll as representative of the honor students.

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, president of the College of Puget Sound, was unanimously chosen to be the guest speaker.

Helen Veatch and Phyllis Johnson emerged as co-valedictorians of the Class of '45 leaving a perfect record of straight A's. Close behind with only one B was Shirley Miller, salutatorian.

Proving that high scholarship can be successfully combined with participation in school affairs, these five students had an abundant array of honors and activities.

Orv held the limelight in athletics, being captain of the basketball team and a varsity football and baseball player. Prominent in student government as well, he was vice president of Student Council.

Nancy showed distinct leadership in her numerous offices, especially as president and treasurer of Girls' Club. She was also a member of Triple S, Stadiana and Student Council, and won her third-year athletic award.

Helen was prominent in journalism, serving as editor and feature editor of The World, vice president of Quill and Scroll and a Tahoma staff member. She headed the service department of Girls' Club and was active in athletics and debating.

Phyllis completed her credits in 2½ years, and served as an activity and war bond manager, Red Cross representative and member of Miracle Book Club.

Shirley's activities centered around music. She played the flute in the orchestra and opera, and was a Red Cross and P.-T. A. representative.

A total of 52 seniors had their names on the senior honor roll, a slight decrease in percentage from 1944, when there were 67.

Music for the commencement program is to be furnished for the first time by the band, under the direction of Mr. Diettrich.

1944 AWARD WINNERS

Typifying the high standards of scholarship and citizenship which Stadiums have upheld through the years, 16 graduating seniors were honored with awards and scholarships at commencement last June.

One of the most coveted rewards a boy can receive for three years of outstanding sportsmanship and scholarship at Stadium is the Richard Graff Memorial Award, which was presented to the school in 1919 by the late Dr. and Mrs. Marc W. Graff as a tribute to their son, who died while a senior here. Bill McGovern was selected last year as the twenty-sixth boy to have his name engraved on the cup. Bill was prominent in school affairs, serving as co-captain of the varsity football team, president of the Student Council and a member of Hi-Y.

Chosen on a basis of competitive examinations, Lawrence Carino won the Columbia University honor scholarship. This award provides $500 for the first year, renewable for four years. After attending the first quarter at Columbia, Larry was called into the Army Air Corps, thus postponing use of his scholarship until after the war.

Faithful and meritorious service on school publications gained for Nancy Geiger the journalism award. Nancy was assistant editor of The World, president of Quill and Scroll, a member of the Tahoma staff and winner of a journalism letter.

Ed Olson received the Garland music award, presented each year to the student who encourages and contributes most toward musical life at Stadium. Ed was president of the band, in which he played for three years, and a member of the pep band.

The Bausch & Lomb award, given to the student who shows the greatest promise in the field of scientific research, went to Ed LaChapelle.

Personal merit and a definite goal in preparation for service earned for Beverly Ford and Benny Gallagher the Stadium P.-T. A scholarships. Jane Parker was awarded a $100 scholarship to the College of Puget Sound.

Winner of the Reed College scholarship was Dick Jones. Bruce Parker received the Rotary Club award, and Jesse Pryor the Community scholarship.

Jeannette Bilodeau received a nursing scholarship from the Washington State Federation of Woman's Clubs. The Western Washington College of Education scholarship, provided to encourage prospective teachers, went to Gladys Nicholson. Evelyn Coubrough was awarded the Ada L. McCleary scholarship by the Mary Ball Chapter of the D. A. R., and Dorothy Polley was given one semester's free room rent at Washington State College.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of friendly, enthusiastic Sandy Shaub, the Student Council had a busy year, initiating several new ideas. Orvis Harrelson assisted Sandy as vice president, with Doreen Wilcox as secretary and Doreen Magnuson, treasurer.

"Order in the court!" With one rap of the gavel the annual Football Night, with the novel theme "Night Court," got under way. Co-Chairmen Frank Veith and Marienne Schweinler planned a lively program, complete with policemen, jailbirds and a witty judge in the person of Rudy Marinacci, master of ceremonies.

Main event of the spring was the second exchange assembly with Lincoln, held in March. Stan Langlow and Jo Anne Stevens were co-chairmen, selecting a representative group of Castle talent.

Making a complete file of Stadium talent, the first of its kind, was the task of Ann Wegener and her committee, who also planned a forum assembly for the spring.

To encourage better representation at council meetings, it was decided to hold them every two weeks instead of once a month. War stamp fines were charged for tardiness and absence.

A plan whereby each academic department would give its final tests on different days was sanctioned by the council. Other suggestions, not completed when The Tahoma went to press, included a Student Council dance, a teachers' assembly, and adding the Class of '45 to the group pictures in the halls.

GIRLS' COUNCIL

New ideas for promoting friendship marked a year of achievement by the Girls' Council, led by Nancy Hart. Assisting her were Betty Gillespie, vice president; Jean McCREA, secretary, and Pat Green, treasurer. Miss McCulloch served her first year as chief adviser.

Successfully started during the fall were the informal "Dorothy" teas, which served to acquaint all girls of the same name. Other general projects included a pencil sale in the spring, and exchanging visits with other Girls' Councils.

A "hicky" atmosphere, complete with plaid shirts and straw hats, prevailed at the "Yokel Yamboree," which replaced the traditional "kiddy tolo." Doris Liby and Margaret Armstrong were co-chairmen of the affair, sponsored by the social department. Dayle Hoegh, social chairman, also supervised two mixers, the Girls' Club-Triple S tea and a formal given with Boys' Club.

Welcoming new froshies with "big sisters" was the chief task of the welfare department, headed by Jane Hagen. Jane's committees also decorated the halls at Christmas, polished trophies and served at P.-T. A. meetings.

The service department provided colorful Christmas stockings and Easter baskets for the children at the Community House, and scrapbooks for those at the Day Nursery. Jackie Brown was chairman in the fall, and Helen Veatch in the spring.

Wreaths for the annual Memorial Day service were planned by the fellowship department, with Margie Wolf as chairman. This group also sent holiday greetings to the faculty, and encouraged girls to wear white blouses on Wednesdays.

Last event of the year is the impressive installation ceremony, when next year's officers take over their duties.

BOYS' COUNCIL

Organized a year ago last spring to provide an active life for the boys of Stadium, Boys' Club has really lived up to its reputation as a service club. Able Bruce Stewart as president led the club through a successful year of activities directed toward the betterment of the school.

Such projects as after-school movies to earn money for its treasury to do worthwhile things around Stadium and assemblies to inform boys about intramural and spring sports were included in the program of the club. The Boys' Club-Girls' Club formal was held March 2.

The service departments under their respective commission chairmen provided a means of serving the school efficiently. Duties of these commissioners were: athletics, to have charge of the intramural program; social, to sponsor the formal dance in March, inaugurate big brothers for in-coming froshmore boys in the fall and spring semesters and to have charge of other assemblies; morale, to back Pep Club in promoting pep and school spirit; welfare, to improve health and safety conditions around Stadium; public relations, to have charge of handling any business between the club and the public.

Commission chairman were Tom Galbraith Art Nylander, John White, Frank Veith and Harvey Bottiger, respectively.

Other officers were Miles Custis, vice president; Bob Steinseifer, secretary; Tom Baker, treasurer. Mr. Leatherwood was faculty adviser.

Row 2: Miles Custis, Bob Steinseifer, John White, Harvey Bottiger, Frank Veith.

TRIPLE S

Achieving the goal of every Stadium girl, 38 wore the tiny blue and gold pin symbolic of Triple S, "Stadium's Supporting Spirit."

Living up to the high ideals of its motto, the honorary society carried through many traditional activities, such as making pompons for the Thanksgiving Day game, promoting friendship during Howdy Week and holding its annual spring tolo and tea.

Officers were: Carol Blundell, president; Virginia Herrmann, vice president; Janet McConnell, secretary; Marienne Schweinler, treasurer.

Row 2: Jack Granberg, Paul Fossum, Bill Baker, Orville Mollett, Bruce Stewart, Dick Parker, Stan Langlow, Bob Lessley, Bud Thomsen, Miles Custis.

Row 3: John Taylor, Harold Simonson, Bill Punter, Mike Roeder, Bill Scribner, Sandy Shaub, Joe Mahoski, Leon Clark, Orv Harrelson.

SENIOR HI-Y

Hi-Y, boys' honorary organization, lived up to its purpose as a service club this year. Among its many activities were ushering at the opera and Senior Class play. The club also worked with Triple S as sponsors of Howdy Week, and gave a house party.

One of the biggest contributions to Stadium was a $250 water wagon to be used during football season.

Fall officers were Jim Crews, president; Dexter Silver, vice president; Bill Scribner, secretary; Tom Galbraith, treasurer.

In the spring Stan Langlow was president; Dick Brown, vice president; Frank Veith, secretary; Mike Roeder, treasurer.

Mr. Prentice was adviser.

BENGAL HI-Y

Known as Bengal Hi-Y after several previous titles, this junior branch of Hi-Y also performed duties around school to earn itself the title of a service club.

Some of the projects included working on the trophy case in cooperation with Senior Hi-Y, selling Christmas trees, and acting as co-chairman of the mid-year Howdy Week.

In the fall Tom Baker was president; Don Warter, vice president; Jack Waechter, secretary; Bill Kowalski, treasurer.

Doug Johnson was president in the spring with Jack Waechter, vice president; John Walters, secretary; Dwayne Westlin, treasurer. Mr. Gerry Waechter was adviser for the whole year.

TORCH Y CLUB

Composed of Stadium boys and affiliated with the National Y.M.C.A., the Torch Y Club held social functions, participated in the all-city dance put on by the clubs of the various high schools and conducted a paper drive to raise money for the Y.M.C.A. world service fund. The club's baseball team also won the Y-church league championship.

Committee heads were: Membership, Frank Veith and Stan Olsen; service, Bob Lewis and Dick Burrows; social, Ken Addis and Frank Veith.

Fall officers were: Bud Thomsen, president; Cliff Hoff, vice president; Frank Veith, secretary; Bruce Andreassen, treasurer; Mr. Summers, adviser. Spring officers were: Bud Thomsen, president; Stan Langlow, vice president; Bruce Andreassen, secretary; Bill Robertson, treasurer; John Taylor, chaplain; Dick Burrows, sergeant at arms.

BIG S

To become a member of Big S, the athletic lettermen's club, an applicant must have first received a varsity letter or two minor letters in any sport.

Officers for the year were: Dex Silver, president; Dick Brown, vice president; Bruce Stewart, secretary; Winslow Granlund, treasurer; Mr. Heinrick, adviser. When Silver left to go into the Merchant Marine at the beginning of the second semester, Brown took over the presidential duties.

STADIANA

Officers this year were Doris Vollmer, president; Joyce Sheets, vice president; Ann Wegener, secretary; Donna Grissom, treasurer; Jane Hagen, sergeant at arms. For the second year Stadiana captured the prize for the best skit at Football Night.

The annual banquet was held this year on March 13th with Virginia Skarponi as chairman.

P.-T. A. REPRESENTATIVES

The aid of the Junior Council in the annual P.-T. A. membership drive in October was one of the most successful projects during the year.

In November a program was presented at the monthly meeting.

Officers for the year were: Barbara Hufford, president; Barbara Horjes and Jimmy Clinton, vice presidents; Dolores O'Dore, secretary-treasurer; Bill Kidd, sophomore representative; Clarice Loren, junior representative, and Katheryne Alff, senior representative.

Row 2: Jo Ann Wasson, Meryl Johnson, Oliver Erickson, Katheryne Alff, Maudie Boyle, Doris Ehnat, Sue Pringle, Katherine Falskow, Patricia Bolvin, Joan Niesen, Bill Kidd, Helen Hahn, Pat Green, Barbara Wilson, Janice Johnson.

RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVES

Row 2: Jeannine O'Halloran, Joanne Knapp, Dot Jones, Jo Anne Gilette, Harriet Herrmann, Pat Murray, Pat Harris, Lorayne Rockway, Claire Thompson, Louise Wahl, Maurine Frank, Joan Johnson.

RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVES

This year's Red Cross Representatives were active with many projects. In the early fall the membership drive and the blotter sale took place. At mid-semester all students were urged to bring soap and washcloths for the soldiers at Fort Lewis. The representatives also put on an assembly to further the drive for funds. Money collected amounted to $377.93. Extending over the entire fall semester was the collection of magazines for service men.

In the spring a White Elephant sale was held, headed by Jean Washburn.

Officers were: President, Shirley Monzingo; vice president, Bill Funk; secretary, Jerry Gordon; treasurer, Pat Young; adviser, Miss Sanders.

FALL ACTIVITY MANAGERS

Stressing how much could be saved by buying student activity books, the fall activity managers carried on a campaign to boost the sale of the tickets. These managers sold stamps every week, took care of distributing World tokens and any other business that was asked of them. Miss Ricono was the activity clerk, with Mr. Giltner as adviser.

Row 1: Dorothy Kezich, Phyllis Jensen, Doris Hoffman, Tollie Lichtenberg, Jean Perella, Frances McGovern, Barbara Knott, Marsha York, Virginia Nicholson, Phyllis Johnson, Pat McCarty, Berenice Brewitt, Betty Gillespie.

SPRING ACTIVITY MANAGERS

Besides selling activity stamps and handing out World tokens on Friday, the spring activity managers had the added duty of taking orders for The Tahoma, and handing out the books in May.

FALL BOND MANAGERS

With the sale of United States war bonds and stamps becoming more important every day, Stadium's bond managers played an important part in the school's war activities. These students, chosen by roll teachers for their dependability and scholarship, took orders and received money for $30,000 worth of stamps and bonds. Roll rooms in which 90 per cent or more of the students bought stamps or bonds received small Minute-Man banners, which were kept for one month, or as long as 90 per cent bought stamps.

Faculty adviser for the bond managers was Mr. Smith.

FALL BOND MANAGERS

SPRING BOND MANAGERS

During the spring semester a special effort was made to fly the large Minute-Man flag, signifying that 90 per cent of the students bought stamps or bonds. Although the flag was not flown during the fall semester, Stadium was awarded the flag in May of 1943.

ATTENDANCE WORKERS

This year 50 girls volunteered to work in the attendance office, receiving valuable office training. They worked one period a day, collecting first-period absentee lists, re-entry slips and class absentee lists, recording absentees on attendance cards, checking re-entries and excuses, typing absentee lists, and doing filing and other office work. Girls who wish to work a full period hand their applications to Mrs. Laursen, specifying the period in which they would like to work. If they possess the necessary qualifications and there is an opening for them, they are accepted. The girls who collect slips from the class rooms are chosen from first- and fifth-period study halls.

Attendance assistants are under the supervision of Mrs. Laursen, attendance clerk.

STUDY HALL ASSISTANTS

Students were chosen by their respective study hall teachers to help with the checking of pupils absent from study. Their duties consisted of making a list of all students not in attendance and then marking off those names which were represented by a slip from the library or were on the absentee list from 104. Besides their duties these students set an example for the class by being quiet and going to work immediately.

YELL TEAM

With Harvey Rehn and Joyce Sheets as king and queen for the second year, the yell team successfully led the student body in the yells and songs. It was quite noticeable that there was more pep shown at Stadium this year than in the past several years.

Cynthia Harris was elected duchess; Johnny Taylor and Bud Thomsen were chosen dukes.

Since Harvey enlisted in the Merchant Marine in January, Johnny took over his duties as king and Don Adams was appointed duke.

MOTION PICTURE PROJECTOR OPERATORS

Row 1: Bob Hogberg, Dick Lowery, John Davis.
Row 2: Harold Raymond, Jean Washburn, Floyd Reetz.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Students who wish to prepare themselves for the librarian field may do so as library assistants.

Their duties consist of learning the regular business conducted in a library and being an information bureau to students in the library.

These assistants are under the supervision of the librarian.

Because Miss Kobetich broke her hip in December, Mrs. Richard Andress took her place as librarian for the rest of the school year.

MOTION PICTURE OPERATORS

Films secured for the visual education program at Stadium this year were on a wide number of classroom subjects. They were both interesting and educational to all who saw them.

This year 12 boys and 1 girl were the operators, running the projectors during their study periods. Mr. Bakke acted as the adviser for the group.

STUDENT NURSES

To care for minor injuries and illnesses of girls which may come up during the day, there is always a student nurse in the Red Cross room. These student nurses are girls who are taking Home Nursing and are appointed to the work one period a day for two weeks at a time. They keep records of all who come in, and send to teachers the slips authorizing students to go to the Red Cross room. As it is part of their Home Nursing course, they are graded on the work they do in the Red Cross room as well as on their class work. Students are under the supervision of Miss Danielson, school nurse.

LUNCHROOM CREW

Serving lunches, cashiering, stacking trays, helping in the kitchen and cleaning up the lunchroom are some of the duties of the lunchroom crew. These students sign up with Miss Miller, manager of the lunchroom, and work one period a day. In return for their services they receive a free lunch, worth 40 cents. Because of the shortage of helpers this year, Triple S girls served for two-week periods.

BOND WORKERS

Girls chosen from Office Training classes aided in the sale and distribution of war stamps and bonds. Those not appearing in the picture are Lois Holland, Marcelane Eddy, Dottie Collins and Beverly Olson, all of whom left school in January.

Preparing themselves to get along well with others in their future lives, Stadiumites show much interest in the various clubs offered them. Meeting with others showing talents of mutual interest gives them a chance to further their own ability as well as help others. Contacts made at this time will last throughout the years, and the foundation laid here will ever be valuable.

DEBATE CLUB

In the annual debate tournament at the College of Puget Sound, the largest ever given west of the Mississippi, Stadium placed third in cross-question and fifth and seventh in extemporaneous speaking.

The class tournament in November was won by the senior team composed of Lyle Lindelien and Walt Loewenstein.

A conference was held at Stadium in January for all the schools that planned to participate in the C. P. S. tourney.

In March the debate banquet was held at the Five Point Inn.

Officers for the year were: Leon Clark, president; Jay Fox, vice president; Katheryne Alff, secretary; Virginia Herrmann, treasurer; Marvin Levy, sergeant at arms, and Mary Lou LaChapelle, social chairman.

Mr. Albrecht, Mr. Prentice and Mr. Simpson, debate coaches, were the advisers.

Row 3: Beth De Mille, Doreen Wilcox, Allyce Weber, Margot Sliker, Alice LeBlanc, Carol Blundell, Gladys Aronson, Doris Liby, Pat Green, Mary Jean Kean, Jean McCrea.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU

Where is the Student Council meeting? When are the senior play tryouts? When do we try out for Tigerannas?

These were but a few of the questions the Castlites had answered for them this year by the members of Speakers' Bureau. Announcements were made in roll rooms each Monday morning concerning the activities taking place during the week.

Officers for this year were: Nancy Slayden, president; Ann Wegener, vice president, and Jane Hagen, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Albrecht was the adviser.

MARINERS

Lack of adult leadership this year forced the Mariners to combine their two ships, "Discovery" and "Adventure," into one.

The activities of these Senior Girl Scouts during the fall were selling war bonds and stamps in the downtown department stores in the bond drives and helping in an auction sale at Kiwanis Club.

Officers of the year were: Donna Grissom, president; Beverly Mooney, vice president; Claire Thompson, secretary, and Helen Veatch, treasurer.

THESPIANS

Highlighting the 1944-45 dramatic season with the presentation of the annual matinee, this year called "Finklestein's Follies," Stadium Thespians had an active year, which also included the yearly Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies.

Clarissa Robinson was president; Leonard Raver, vice president; Nancy Slayden, secretary; Janet McConnell, treasurer; Mrs. Gaul, adviser.

BOYS' GOLF CLUB

Promoting interest in golfing at Stadium was the purpose of Boys' Golf Club. It provided the golf team with players and practiced at local courses, receiving instruction from experts in the sport.

In the spring tournaments were held among the members. These matches helped determine who would be on the regular team. Old golf balls were collected so that new ones might be purchased for the team, and a trophy was presented to the best player in recognition of his skill.

Bruce Andreassen was president and Jim Fowler, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Swarm is adviser.

BOYS' GOLF CLUB

Row 1: Alan Pearce, Royce Ward, Frank Cooper, Dick Fowler, Dick Nicholson, Bruce Andreassen, Jim Fowler, Larry Swarm, Mr. Swarm.

Row 2: Jorgen Husby, Ralph Long, Ron Stenger, Dick Burrows, Chuck Caddey, Bruce Dennis, Jerry Monahan, Larry Martin, Charles Hause, Harry Aldrich, Don Lochow.

HUNTING AND FISHING

Row 1: "Cap" Palmer, Cliff Johnson, Bob Lewis, Dick Burrows, Willard Peterson.

Row 2: Cliff Hoff, Johnny White, Harvey Bottiger, Bill Andrews, Glenn Otis, Warren Sand, Bob Hill.

HUNTING AND FISHING CLUB

If you have a tender spot in your heart for fishing or thrill to the outdoor life engaged in hunting, the Hunting and Fishing Club is for you. This club furnishes an opportunity for boys with these interests to swap stories and ideas and gain some important knowledge which can be used to their own advantage whenever they may choose to pursue the scaly denizens of the deep or the wily inhabitants of the forest.

The club has done a good job of keeping alive the interest in outdoor life and will continue to do so. At the weekly meetings the members discuss the technical side of the sport and plan salmon derbies, which are held during the summer off Point Defiance. Prominent speakers, some of the best fishermen and hunters in Tacoma, are also present at some of the meetings.

The officers were: Bob H. Peterson, president; Walter Hansen, vice president; Bill Fleming, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Palmer, adviser.

RIFLE CLUB

In promoting and encouraging interest of the students of Stadium High School toward participating in rifle shooting, the Rifle Club has proved very successful.

Meeting every Tuesday and Thursday evenings, the members practice shooting in the prone, sitting, kneeling and standing positions. They also strive to gain ratings which are given out by the National Rifle Association. Only four members have received expert ratings and are eligible to try for the distinguished rating, which is the highest a riflist can gain. They are Jean Washburn, Walt Loewenstein, Shirley Johnson and Dick Messler.

The officers were: Walt Loewenstein, president; Duane Wegner, recording secretary; Anne McCrea, corresponding secretary; Dwain Colby, treasurer; Mr. Giltner, adviser.

RIFLE CLUB

Row 1: Shirley DeMars, Joanne Goodrich, Anne McCrea, Jean Lewis, Muriel Thompson, Bonnie Cripe, Mary Peterson, Earl Biekla, Roddy Mason, Pierre Arkin, Paul Meneghel, Duane Wegner, Dave Bigger.
 Row 2: Ed Lane, Marilyn Schaefer, Marion Lovejoy, Joan Ates, Jean Washburn, Dorothy Moe, Earl Bratback, Dwain Colby, Joan Fisk, John Schartow, John Friars, Gloria Greene.

RIFLE TEAM

Row 1: Mr. Giltner, Dick Mesler, John Schartow, Dwight Ball, Ken Hultman, Paul Meneghel, Earl Bratback, Dave Bigger, Duane Wegner.
 Row 2: Dorothy Moe, Nancy Thomas, Clara Peterson, Marion Lovejoy, Doris Vollmer, Marilyn Schaefer, Joan Fisk, Dwain Colby, Ed Edwards.

RIFLE TEAM

The rifle team is picked by Coach Giltner from those members of Rifle Club that display a considerable amount of interest and shooting ability.

The team enters the National Rifle Association postal matches and the Hearst trophy matches. An elimination tournament, sponsored by the magazine Scholastic Coach, is also held with the winning riflist receiving an award for his efforts. In addition to these, tentative matches are scheduled with Lincoln, Bellarmine and Clover Park.

First-team experts receive seven-inch felt letters and chevrons for first-year work and chenille letters the following years; non-experts receive the same in felt. The award is an S surmounted by a target and crossed rifles.

PEP CLUB

Organized early in the fall to promote school spirit and morale at the football games, Pep Club was enthusiastically accepted by the students.

Boasting a membership of over 200, the club met every Monday after school to plan school projects and social affairs. Its first dance was held after school, before the Stadium-Longview grid game, with the proceeds going toward purchasing a school flag. The club's next dance, the "Bengal Brawl," proved a huge success, with 400 attending and a profit of $101 made. As The Tahoma went to press, Pep Club had already begun plans for its third dance, the "Kastle Krawl," on March 30 in the boys' gym, with Stan Olsen and Jerry Gordon as co-chairmen.

Officers were: Don Adams, president; Bill Funk, vice president; Margie Nilsen, secretary; Cliff Hoff, treasurer. Department heads were: Social, Peggy Gagliardi and Dorothy MacKenzie; publicity, Florence Guthrie and Rudy Marinacci; morale, the yell leaders; program, the club's officers.

SAHASA CABINET

Stadium's Girl Reserves club, Sahasa, completed an unusually active and successful season, with a membership of over 350.

Community services, such as helping in the Russian war relief, the Industrial Home and war bond drives, were balanced by a certain amount of educational value, in the form of speakers and panel discussions on pertinent subjects. The year was highlighted by two annual tolos, "Dream Sublime" in the fall and a late spring formal ruled over by a May queen and two attendants.

Officers were: Barbara Hufford, president; Gwen Evans, vice president; Mary Swanes, recording secretary; Marienne Schweinler, corresponding secretary; Jerry Gordon, treasurer. Miss Shirley Herbig of the Y. M. C. A. and Mrs. Johnson of Stadium acted as advisers.

Row 1: Mrs. Johnson, Jerry Gordon, Betty Lou Goore, Rhea Riehl, Mary Swanes, Barbara Hufford, Doreen Wilcox, Barbara Hager, Janet McConnell, Delores Klaiber.

HORIZON CLUB

Row 1: Ramona Merry, Jean Buonomo, Donna Bennett, Rosalie Hoar, Gloria Kristofferson, Ruthella Raver, Joan Fries.
Row 2: Doris Goody, Joan Thrasher, Alice Palmer, Colleen Pickert, Beverly Tveter, Nita Hotes, Pat Schaller.

HORIZON CLUB

Horizon Club, composed of senior Camp Fire Girls, had a successful start in its first year as a Stadium organization.

The two main events of the fall were a mixer, "The Cutie Cooties Crawl," and an overnight trip to Vashon Island. In the spring, greeting cards were sold as a money-earning project.

Special speakers were presented at various times during the year.

Officers for the fall were: Beverly Tveter, president; Joan Thrasher, vice president; Donna June Bennett, secretary; Barbara Hite, treasurer. Those who served for the spring were: Rosalie Hoar, president; Billie Mellis, vice president; Ruthella Raver, secretary; Joan Fries, treasurer.

Mrs. James Thrasher was adviser for the group.

RAILROAD CLUB

To promote interest in railroads and its varied activities the Railroad Club was formed at the beginning of the Fall semester with Mr. Smith as faculty adviser.

Activities included trips taken on local trains to gain first-hand information of the workings of a railroad. During the year outside speakers told of various phases of railroading.

Fall officers were: Jim Fredrickson, general manager; Dick Johnson, superintendent; Lyle Lindelien, chief clerk; John Tucker, timekeeper.

In the spring John Crawford was general manager; Ross Bischoff, superintendent; Pat Pratt, chief clerk; Jay Fox, timekeeper.

Row 1: Ross Bischoff, Pat Pratt, Jay Fox, Byron Norton, John Crawford, Pat Carlson, Phyllis Hoats.
Row 2: Mr. Smith, Ron Stenger, Ken Miller, John Tucker, Dick Brewster, Ralph Long, Ed Hibben, Fillmore Buckner.

SCIENCE CLUB

Row 1: Jing Chu Ling, Elizabeth Lynn, Harriet Fiske, Janice Michnik, Zelda Franks.

Row 2: Fillmore Buckner, Byron Norton, John Crawford, Jay Fox, Pat Pratt, Shun Nei Ling.

Row 3: Mr. Summers, Phil Barker, John Tucker, Rollin Bach, Ken Nichols, Warren Clark.

MUSIC APPRECIATION

Row 2: Marie Stowe, Ruthella Raver, Dolores Klaiber, Bill Turner, Shirley Medak, Zelda Franks.

SCIENCE CLUB

Entertaining Stadions with record music once a week at noon was the important project of Science Club this year.

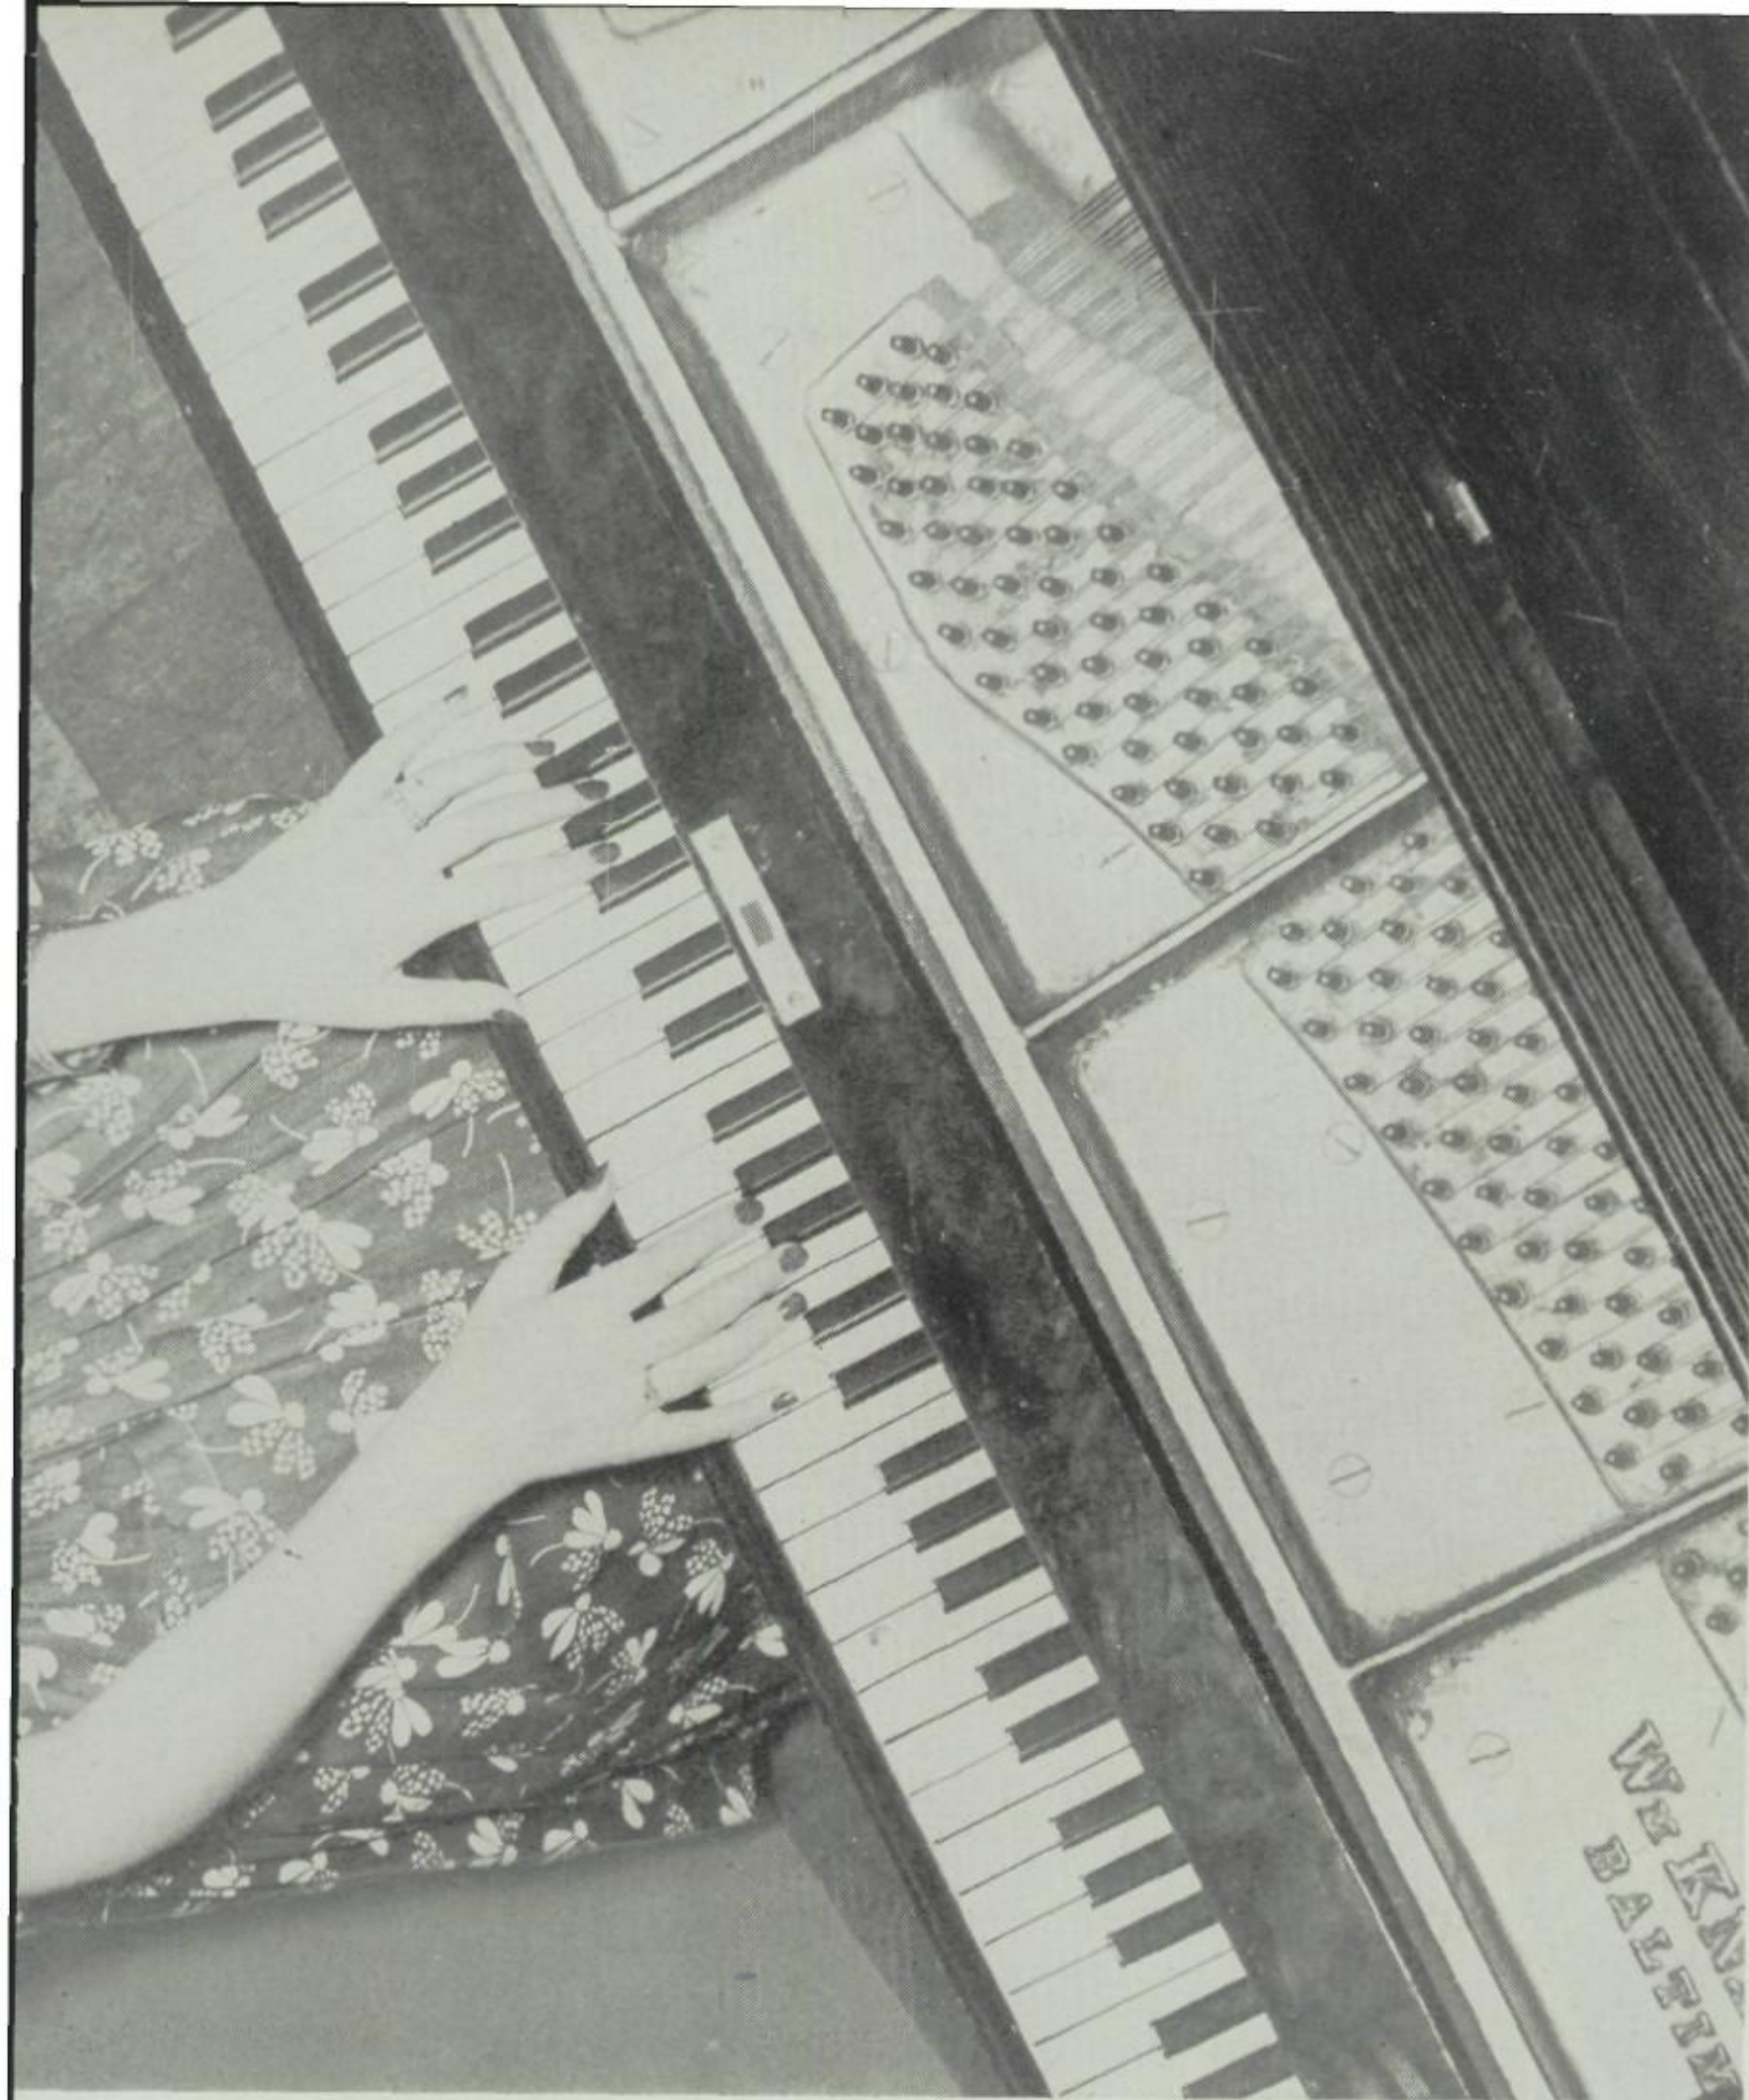

Officers for the fall and spring were: Byron Norton, Fillmore Buckner, president; Fillmore Buckner, Pat Pratt, vice president; Jim Fredrickson, Harriet Fiske, secretary; John Crawford, treasurer; Harriet Fiske, Byron Norton, sergeant at arms. Mr. Summers was adviser.

MUSIC APPRECIATION CLUB

To become more familiar with the world's great classical music and to create an appreciation for serious as well as modern music, the Music Appreciation Club was active again this year. Miss Lisle was adviser.

Leonard Raver served as president for the second year, with Jim Christensen acting as secretary.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Learning to express themselves in the field in which they are most talented, many Stadions prepare now for the years ahead, getting a start which they will value greatly in their future lives.

The training initiated here may develop into a worthwhile future, and the fun it brings counteracts hard work. The arts at Stadium are very much a part of the Castle, and high school life would be dull without the talent of this field.

MR. JOHNSON

OPERA

"Wytana," a musical play in three acts, by Stadium's own Mr. Johnson, was presented March 8, 9, and 10 in the school auditorium, starring Dolores Klaiber and Harry Aldrich in the leading dramatic roles.

With lilting music and rip-roaring comedy, fresh from the Golden West, "Wytana" contains originality of composition, freshness of dialog and adroitness in the handling of the plot situations, which is also true of "Masquerade," Mr. Johnson's previous opus presented two years ago.

The story, which combines clever comedy and realistic dialog, concerns a group of "characters" forced to remain on the dude ranch due to a storm. They feared the presence of a notorious criminal, "Dandy" Hollis, now a fugitive from justice.

Catapulted into this tense situation is Barbara Waring, a wealthy heiress, portrayed by Dolores Klaiber, who, with her acting and singing experience from last year's opera, turned in an excellent performance; Harry Aldrich as the mysterious aviator, Ferris Sutton, who assumed the role of Miss Waring's "amour" and played his leading part well; Paul Anderson and Netta Harbke, playing the parts of Gus Howe, movie agent, and Kitty Trim, adoring admirer of "Gussie," respectively, who practically stole the show with their crazy antics and comic situations.

A secondary lead was taken by Leon Clark, who played the part of Joe Wasson and who perhaps best suited his role of the ranch foreman with his cowboy songs and "long-winded" stories. Dorothy Dunn as Louise Partle, the ranch owner and former opera star, took the female supporting lead.

Filling other important roles were Jim Christensen, Clarissa Robinson, Ross Bischoff, Anita Stebbins, Marian Venn, Helen Hahn, Gordon Anderson, Howie Rodman and Bob Baird, all of whom deserve credit for fine performances.

To all the incidents of "Wytana," intertwined and tangled at times, a happy solution was found, constituting the story of this year's opera.

Members of the special chorus who helped create a ranch atmosphere by their gay costumes and catchy tunes were Jarry Aldrich, Betty Fyke, Shirley Medak, Billie Mellis, Jackie Schore, Louise Simpson, Nancy Slayden, Delores Steiger, Jo Anne Stevens, Elsie Stowe, Shirley Tunstall and Gloria Wolover.

With Joyce Sheets as director and Joyce Rosenberger and Betty Wright as assistant and associate supervisors, respectively, the dancing chorus consisted of Johna Lu Austin, Billie Baker, Alice Bergstrom, Betty Cunningham, Janine Ecklund, Bernita Falk, Louise Fullinwider, Ramona Gibson, Virginia Gundstrom, Cynthia Harris, Doris Henderson, Geraldine Hendry, Janice Johnson, Clarice Loren, Janet McMath, Diane Metsker, Jeanne Miles, Marjie Ness, Lois Peck, Sally Sample and Donna Waite.

Pianists were Leonard Raver, Lucile Graham, Claire Thompson, Nancy Newell and Veona King.

Below: Netta Harbke and Paul Anderson, comedy leads, diligently rehearsing.

Above: The very impressive Indian dancers on the stage.

Right: The leads practicing dialogue for the "big" night.

GIRLS' SENIOR GLEE CLUB

Playing an important part in this year's opera "Wytana," Mr. Johnson's wild and wooly cowboy extravaganza, the Girls' Senior Glee Club contributed its best to this year's production. The main leads as well as supporting roles came from the membership of the club.

The girls also appeared as guest artists in the spring band concert as they have in the past years.

Music of Christmas from many lands was provided by a group of 12 carolers at the Yuletide season. In the group were Dorothy Dunn, Betty Fyke, Helen Hahn, Netta Harbke, Dolores Klaiber, Clarissa Robinson, Louise Simpson, Nancy Slayden, Anita Stebbins, Elsie Stowe, Jo Anne Stevens, Shirley Tunstall and Lucile Graham, accompanist and student director.

Lucile Graham was also accompanist for the glee club during the year.

Officers for the year were: Pat Green, president; Anita Stebbins, vice president; Nancy Slayden, secretary-treasurer.

SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Row 1: Delores Steiger, Bonnie Lee Walker, Margaret Johnson, Delores Klaiber, Nancy Slayden, Pat Green, Rosemary Llewellyn, Barbara Hager, Joyce Brynestad, Shirley Tunstall, Louise Simpson, Clara Bowe, Lucile Graham, Elsie Marie Stowe, Dona Geisenheyner.

Row 2: Betty Fyke, Caryl Hart, Joyce Sullivan, Joyce Christie, Eleanor Nelson, Beverly Roller, Beverly Wick, Doris Abelsen, Carol Oman, Nancy Osborne, Phyllis Isch, Marian Venn, Marie Mommsen, Dorothy Johnson.

Row 3: Marjorie Scholdsten, Marjorie England, Helen Hull, Mary Lee Stags, Charleen Finson, Lavonne Schuler, Beverly Freeman, Natalie Nicholson, Betty Barkost, Lillian Finson, Genevieve Martin, Jackie Schore, Beth Armstrong, Anita Stebbins, Delores Johnson, Rosalie Hoar.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Uncle Sam has found many recruits among the members of the Boys' Glee Club, but that has not hindered the quantity nor quality of the group. Besides participating in this year's opera "Wyotana," the boys are to take part in the Memorial Day program, appearing also in the annual music assembly with the Girls' Senior Glee Club.

Musical numbers in this year's repertoire included popular songs. Such numbers as "Night and Day," "Hallelujah!" and "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody" were well received on the club's numerous appearances.

Officers were: Leon Clark, president; Harry Aldrich, vice president; Paul Anderson, secretary-treasurer. These boys also had the main leads in the opera.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Row 1: Leon Clark, Bruce Stewart, Howie Rodman, Jim Christensen, Harry Aldrich, Bob Baird, Ross Bischoff, Paul Anderson.
Row 2: Orville Mollett, Irvin Miller, Jim Clinton, Bill Kowalski, George Hupe, Dave Lantz, Roald Reitan, Joe Thome.
Row 3: Colvin Glenn, David Blackwell, Bob Carino, Dick Burrows, Don Adams, Gordy Anderson, Jack Dovey, Warren Cavanagh.

ORCHESTRA

Row 1: Barbara Herbst, Doris Carlson, Lucile Graham, Barbara Wahlstrom, Alice LeBlanc, Gordon Scraggin, Leonard Raver.
Row 2: Francis Kitler, Jean Lee, VeOna King, Betty Gettman, Eleanor Sprague, Janice Michnik, Pauline Anderson, Maxine Shaw.
Row 3: Jo Ann Wasson, Louise McLaughlin, Shirley Miller, Deltha Bures, Sarah Lou Miller, Delores Swailes, Gene Lough, Jim Luzzi.

ORCHESTRA

"Wyotana" would not have been a success had it not been for the delightful background which the orchestra provided for this year's production. Under Mr. Johnson's able direction, the group also appeared in the music assembly and on programs and assemblies for various civic groups and junior high schools of the city.

The orchestra this year was larger than last, due to additional members from the band, particularly in the woodwind and brass sections. This enabled the group to play music of a more classical nature. Soloists and ensembles from the orchestra also provided music for assemblies.

Officers for the year were: Frances Kitlar, president; Gene Lough, vice president; Pauline Anderson, secretary-treasurer.

TIGERANNAS

Stadium's pride and joy, the Tigerannas, through their own personal sacrifice and hard work, were able to march this year at the Thanksgiving Day game, the Hoop-Go-Round at the Armory and on Armistice Day.

This group, the only one of its kind in the city, in past years has marched at almost every football game. This year, due to adverse circumstances, the Tigerannas practiced marching at Mason and Stadium on Sundays. Pat Young acted as president, with Shirley Baker as secretary-treasurer. Mr. Diettrich was adviser.

Row 1: Claire Thompson, Virginia Gundstrom, Doreen Magnuson, Nancy Slayden, Janet McConnell, Shirley Baker, Pat Young, Wava Edwards, Norma Johnson, Pat Shea, Mary Swanes, Donna Haskell, Muriel Thompson, Betty Robinson, Marsha York, Marilyn Powell, Caryl Hart, Gloria Wolover, Barbara Horjes, Marcia Brown, Mary Simons, Janet McMath, Pat Brown, Darlene Phelps, Doris Ehnat, Joan Niesen.

Row 1: Phyllis Hoats, Gloria Robbins, Lois Peck, Barry Garland, Ron Stenger, David Blackwell, Gordon McCulloch, Earl Pitz, Margie Almviq, Idell Reimer, Marion Long.

Row 2: Valeera Bures, Barbara Herbst, Mildred Stevenson, Eloise Winden, Barbara Brooks, Joanne Stebbins, Walt Bragdon, Bob Peterson, Howie Rodman, Robert Maguinez, Bob Sinclair.

Row 3: Don Foster, Alice Bergstrom, Doris Carlson, Conrad Engebretson, Jim Boze, Bill Howard, Don Kallander, Dan Lantz, Bob Goodman, Paul Meneghel, David Engebretson, Webster Foreman, Ruthella Raver.

Row 4: Mary West, Shirley Gadd, Peg Rowley, John Schartow, June Kennedy, Phyllis Mernaugh, Clare Hopper, Shirley Willis, Beverly Newham, Jo Ann Fitch, Clarice Loren.

Making its greatest contribution to the spirit of Stadium, the band provided music and specialty numbers at football and basketball games and for pep assemblies.

One of the biggest thrills for band members during the year was the privilege of going to Seattle where they played for the state basketball tournament at the request of the team.

Officers for the year were: Bob Sinclair, president; Harold Prescott, senior representative; Bob Olson, junior representative; Bill Howard, sophomore representative.

STAGE CREW

"Stadium's forgotten men," the stage crew, were again under the direction of Mr. Westgate. During fifth period and after school crew members worked preparing scenery for the opera, Senior Class play, concerts, Football Night and assemblies.

The crew consisted of Clayton Allen, Frank Brown, Bill Flemming, David Fredrick, George Hagen, Pat Pratt, Jack Ringos, Gene Shortlidge and John Tucker.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

One of the highest ambitions of Stadium drama enthusiasts is to earn membership in the National Thespian Society, by doing outstanding work in the Senior Class play, Christmas play or other achievements in the field of drama.

This year's members are Ross Bischoff, Dolores Klaiber, Gordon Marvik, Janet McConnell, Leonard Raver, Clarissa Robinson, Nancy Slayden and Bill Turner.

DRUM MAJORETTES

Margie Almvig, Lois Peck, Gloria Robbins, Phyllis Hoats, Marion Long, Idell Reimer.

DRUM MAJORETTES

"Tramp, tramp, tramp, the girls are marching." Yes, through fog and rain, slush and snow, they lifted the morale of every Stadiumite when leading the band during football games.

Taking an outstanding part in the Thanksgiving day program, they led the Tigerannas in the forming of the words "Hello, Stadium," and "Hello, Lincoln," followed by the national emblems of the armed forces.

With Idell Reimer and Gloria Robbins as leaders, the following majorettes really strutted their stuff to the satisfaction of all: Marjorie Almvig, Phyllis Hoats, Marion Long and Lois Peck.

MRS. GAUL

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Combining mystery and comedy, "Ghost Wanted," a three-act play by Guernsey Le Pelley, was presented April 26 and 27 as the 1945 Senior Class play, directed by Mrs. Gaul.

The main leads were taken by Beverly Farrell, who portrayed Ginger Stormgay, a pretty girl in her teens; Alice Bergstrom, who took the part of Gale, her older sister; Gordon Marvik, cast as Hugo Bromley, a young man out of a job, and Paul Anderson, who was Jeff Hall, his friend and general manager.

Margaret Sliker as Granny Kate, the girls' capable grandmother, and Irvin Miller as Professor de Vallan, interested in voodoo and zombies, had important supporting roles.

Others in the cast were: Shirley Monzingo as Troddy, maid and cook; Leonard Raver as Hatcher, the Stormgays' houseman; Virginia Herrmann as Madame Zolga, the professor's strange assistant; Jeanne Miles as Azalea, an old lobster woman; Marjie Ness as Nora Vane, an inquisitive person, and Rodney Connor as Mr. Bradshaw, the sheriff.

"Ghost Wanted," a spine-tingling chiller complete with monsters, zombies and voodoo enthusiasts, developed into one of the most thrilling plays ever presented by a senior class.

Main leads in "Ghost Wanted" were portrayed by Paul Anderson, Alice Bergstrom, Beverly Farrell and Gordon Marvik.

The entire cast takes time out from rehearsals to pose for the camera.

*Dear Bonnie
Give sure that for being in your class
good luck in the year
come. Sincerely,
Barbara*

Although the work on Stadium publications is done principally for the fun involved, the training helps to prepare many students each year to realize more fully the importance of the press — one of our four freedoms.

Journalism offers one of the best opportunities for learning and those engaged in this field find the work hard but the satisfaction great. In the future this experience will have much value in any walk of life which we may attempt to follow.

SHIRLEY BAKER
Editor

FALL WORLD

Although only 16 students made up the World staff in the fall the school weekly continued to be well written and provided Castlites with worthwhile news and entertainment.

Heading the staff was Shirley Baker, who had both the duties of editor and news editor. Because better financial conditions permitted, the paper was increased to a four-column tabloid after having only three columns for one year, and many cuts were used.

"Sports High Spots" were reported by Frank Veith, sports editor, while Doris Liby covered girls' sports and related "Diana Doings." Nicee Brown was copy editor.

In the feature section, Helen Veatch, feature editor, wrote "Ye Sundial." Jingling the "Jester's Bells" was Jim Fredrickson, who was assisted by cubs. The "Staff Sallies" were gathered by those implied—the staff and also the cubs.

"Brown Castle Bricks," sketches of prominent seniors, were written by various staff members. Jackie Brown and Mary Lou LaChapelle furnished the artistic touch with the linoleum cuts of the "Bricks."

Other features which were new this year were: "Quotation Marks," expressing students' views; sketches of teachers; "In Uniform," telling of alumni in the service, and "Inner Circles," explaining the publishing of The World.

Wanda Hanson, business manager, had charge of the financial end of the paper, while Barbara Sassaman, ad manager, supervised the nine advertising solicitors.

HELEN VEATCH
Editor

SPRING WORLD

Under the leadership of Helen Veatch, editor, a larger staff of 22 members continued to give Stadions a quality newspaper during the spring. The position of news editor was held by Lois Kenney.

Because in the fall semester "B" average students were allowed to take journalism in place of Composition 3, there were two newswriting classes, this fact enabling the staff to be made up of a picked group.

Assuming the duties of feature editor at the beginning of the semester was Janet Hufford, but because of her death, Beverly Leach was appointed to take over the work. Joan Fries, as "Jif" jumbled the "Jester's Bells" while the "Staff Sallies" were collected by the staff. "Ye Sundial" was marked by the editor.

"Brown Castle Bricks" again were written by staff members with Mary Lou LaChapelle and Dorothy Simmons drawing the silhouettes of the seniors. Dean Shacklett was photographer and Ann Wegener staff secretary.

Mike Roeder headed the sports department and also wrote "Sports High Spots." "Diana Doings" and girls' athletics were reported by Barbara Wahlstrom.

Wanda Hanson continued as business manager, assisted by Louise Sylstad. Virginia George headed the nine advertising solicitors as ad manager. A new feature that concealed a student's name in the ads was used throughout the year to create more interest in the advertising.

TAHOMA

Striving to give Stadions a Tahoma that would preserve all the memories of their year at high school was the goal of Shirley Baker, yearbook editor, and her staff.

That which is so important to every senior, "The Future," was chosen as the theme for this year's annual by Shirley. The book was dedicated to the boys of the '45 class who are now in the service of our country. The blue cover with a silver overwash was designed by Dorothy Simmons, art editor, and Nancy Hart.

Adding much to the beauty of the book were the two page views of the school which appear on both the front and back inside covers. An extra group of action pictures of various sports is also new this year.

For the first time in a number of years the group pictures were taken in the girls' gym instead of in the court.

In the fall, contracts were awarded by the staff to Pioneer, Inc., and the Washington Engraving Co., while Kennell-Ellis was selected to take both the senior and group pictures.

Work was started on the annual over a year ago when the class cabinet chose Shirley Baker as editor and Lois Peck as business manager. Donna June Bennett acted as assistant editor, and Betty Robinson was in charge of the senior write-ups. Wanda Hanson assisted Lois. The photographers were Dean Shacklett and Mary Lou LaChapelle.

JOURNALISM ADVISERS

Guiding budding journalists through the difficult but pleasant task of publishing a weekly newspaper and an annual, Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Giltner, journalism advisers, supervise Stadium publications.

Initiating The World 23 years ago when he first came to Stadium, Mr. Hoffman has taught many students the whys and wherefores of newswriting. He is the author of "Student Journalism" and "Student Newspaper Advertising," which are used not only at Stadium but in other schools throughout the United States. He is director of The World and edits Tahoma copy also.

Mr. Giltner, for the same length of time, has been Tahoma director, seeing that the staff publishes a good yearbook. He is also financial adviser of The World.

QUILL AND SCROLL

With one of the smallest memberships ever to belong, Stadium's Melville E. Stone Chapter of Quill and Scroll had only five members this year.

To belong to this international honor society, one must have done outstanding work in the field of journalism and must also have had a "B" grade average for one year.

Each year contests in editorial, news, sports and feature writing are sponsored by Quill and Scroll for students throughout the United States. No Stadium entered material for the competition this year.

Officers elected in the fall were: Shirley Baker, president; Helen Veatch, vice president; Lyle Lindelien, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Hoffman was the adviser.

COACH HEINRICK

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Although just missing possession of the Cross-State and City League crowns because of the 7 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Lincoln eleven in the annual Thanksgiving Day classic, the 1944 Tiger grid team can rightfully take its place in the ranks of the great football squads that have played under the Blue and Gold colors. The Turkey Day tilt was its only loss and the only time its goal line was crossed, as the boys chalked up an impressive season record of six wins, one loss and a tie, while gathering a total of 131 points in regular league and practice tilts.

Lacking experience, the Bengals lost to the Abes, 6 to 0, in the finals of the annual Grid-Go-Round event after downing the Bellarmine Lions, 7-0, in the first round; but the following week saw an improved Royal eleven, functioning smoothly, outplay the Rail-splitters though unable to score, with the game, which did not count in league play, ending in a scoreless tie.

An invading Longview outfit fell before the steadily improving Tigers in a practice tilt, which set them in shape for their brilliant 13 to 0 victory over the tough Bellingham gridders on the Raiders' field in opening their Cross-State competition.

With a powerful forward wall and a fast, agile backfield shaping up, the Royals swamped the Bellarmine eleven, 28-0, in their City League debut in the bowl.

With another Cross-State win under their belt by virtue of a 19 to 0 victory over a strong Seattle Prep ball club on the Panthers' field, the Bengal eleven played host to the Bremerton Wildcats and defeated the visitors, 25 to 0. The attack was led by Co-Captain Neil Johnson at the full-back slot, where he played his last game before entering the armed services.

In a sea of mud, the Tigers tromped over the invading Everett Seagulls, 25 to 0, in the annual Armistice Day game, with Halfback Jim Clinton pacing the offensive by chalking up a total of 131 yards, although carrying the ball only four times.

The heart-breaking Thanksgiving Day classic, played in somber rain and heavy mud, closed the curtain on the Bengals' brilliant football season.

At the varsity banquet, Stan Langlow was voted the inspirational award, while Jack Waechter and Tom Baker were chosen co-captains of next year's team. Wingman Dick Brown, Tackle Bill Kowalski and Jim Clinton were given first-string berths on the all Cross-State eleven.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

Playing only three games against Lincoln, with the first two games ending in ties of 0-0 and 6-6, the Bengal reserve squad under Coach Lowman still had a successful season by piling up a 21 to 0 victory over the Lynx in the final tilt to grab the city championship. Unable to do much in the first half against the Abes, the Royals came out in the second canto with blinding attack of varied passing and running plays to push over their three goals and three conversions. Howard Wright, Merle Davies and Allan Gord sparked the Tigers' drivers to paydirt.

SOPHOMORE FOOTBALL

With outstanding offensive and defensive action, the sophomores, under the guidance of Coach Mayer, compiled a remarkable record for a first-year team by chalking up seven wins to one loss and a total of 130 points to the oppositions' 27. Scores were: Stadium 20, Lincoln 0; Stadium 18, Bellarmine 0; Stadium 20, Lincoln 0; Stadium 13, Puyallup 21; Stadium 7, Lincoln 0; Stadium 12, Gig Harbor varsity 6; Stadium 19, Bellarmine 0; Stadium 21, Puyallup 0.

With a full team of five returning varsity lettermen captained by Dick Burrows, the Stadium net squad is looking toward repeating last year's feat of sweeping through the City and Cross-State Leagues undefeated. The team consists of Dick Burrows, Dick Brown, Frank Veith, Art Clark and Jack Buescher.

This season will be terminated by the state tournament, which is being resumed after a year's suspension and will be held in Tacoma.

The Tigers' schedule contains two matches each with Lincoln, Everett and Bremerton for Cross-State competition. Lincoln is the only other opponent for city play. Additional matches are listed tentatively with the College of Puget Sound, University of Washington, Clover Park, Vashon Island, Buckley and a few Seattle schools.

Bruce Andreassen, Jim Fowler, Charles House, Dick Nicholson.

To determine the members of the golf team, a series of tournaments is held with the six "divot diggers" having the lowest scores gaining respective berths on the squad.

The first tourney was held on the Highland course and those with the lowest scores went the next day to the Allenmore greens for the second, and from there to the Fircrest Golf Club where the final choice was made. Additional eliminations, under the supervision of Coach Swarm, were held to give others a chance to make the first team.

As The Tahoma went to press, the links squad had not participated in any matches, but tentative competition was scheduled with Lincoln, Olympia, Lakeside, Everett and Bellingham, the Fircrest green being the home course for all of the Tigers' matches.

COACH LOWMAN

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Through their spirit, eager enthusiasm and top performance, this season's basketball team, in Coach Lowman's estimation, is the "team of teams" that have come under his supervision.

As holders of the city championship and co-owners with Bellingham of the Cross-State title, the Bengal hoopsters will long be remembered in the annals of Stadium's basketball.

The five players that were the backbone of the squad and started every game were each in himself a brilliant individual performer as well as a smooth cog in the machinery of teamwork. Dick Burrows and Bob Bartlett, forwards; Bob Lewis, center; Dick Brown and Orvis Harrelson, guards, bore the brunt of the battles and came through with flying colors.

Opening the season with the annual Hoop-Go-Round, the Tigers swamped Sumner, in the first round, 14-2, but were edged out in the second by a fighting Buckley squad, 10-8.

In their first full time game the Royals stopped a tall Kirkland outfit, 29-21. The Clover Park Warriors were downed 47-37, and then the Bengals fell before Buckley, 34-27, but came out victorious over the Bellarmine five with a 41-18 effort. Sumner was dropped to the tune of 55-15, Puyallup fell 30-21, and the Tigers kept right on going when they met the Lincoln team with an impressive 33-20 victory.

The Vikings from Puyallup were downed 45-34, and the Bengals stopped a tough Seattle Prep outfit, 30-20. A 26-24 win over Clover Park and a 59-27 decision over Bellarmine tuned up the quintet for a brilliant 37-27 victory over Bellingham. In the second Stadium-Lincoln clash, a revived Lynx outfit smashed the Tigers with a 34-27 victory, also ending the Royals' nine-game winning streak. The Bengal squad bounded back to take a fast 31-18 win from Bremerton and then stopped a Seattle Prep final period rally to cop a 37-36 victory.

On the northern jaunt in Cross-State competition, the Tigers were halted by the Bellingham squad, 42-28, but avenged themselves the next day against Everett by staging a thrilling "clutch" performance to emerge victorious, 32-21. Bellarmine was defeated, 47-21; Everett fell, 39-29; Bremerton was downed, 46-32, and the Tigers' Cross-State competition was over with, their reward being co-ownership with Bellingham of the crown.

Now eying the city championship with an even more intensive enthusiasm, the Royals copped a 40-35 thriller from Lincoln; a 43-38 practice tilt with Olympia, a 30-18 victory over Bellarmine and again overcame the Lynx five in overtime, 34-31, to gain the city crown and go to the state tournament in Seattle.

At the tourney, which was held in the University of Washington pavilion, the Tigers never once hit their shooting form. Just barely getting by North Kitsap, 46-45, the Royals were unable to hit the hoop, losing 33-29 to Lincoln of Seattle, who went on to take the state championship. The next afternoon the Tigers lost 26-24, to the Hoquiam cagers.

At the annual banquet the squad voted Dick Brown and Bob Bartlett as co-inspirational winners.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

Coached by Mr. Lowman, the Stadium reserves had an average, though peculiar, season, winning eight tilts and losing eight. Starting out strong, the reserves won their first seven contests, but then proceeded to lose their next seven, winning the next one and ending the season with a loss.

The mainstays of the reserve group were Bill Kowalski, Jack Waechter, Garry Hersey, Jack Buescher and Jim Powers.

The scores of their tilts were: Stadium 32, Kirkland 20; Stadium 46, Clover Park 23; Stadium 37, Buckley 32; Stadium 34, Sumner 29; Stadium 26, Puyallup 25; Stadium 40, Orting 16; Stadium 27, Lincoln 25; Stadium 25, Seattle Prep 31; Stadium 23, Bellingham 28; Stadium 21, Bremerton 33; Stadium 31, Seattle Prep 46; Stadium 25, Bellingham 29; Stadium 31, Bremerton 42; Stadium 27, Sumner 29; Stadium 28, Olympia 18; Stadium 25, Lincoln 27 (two overtime periods).

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Playing a total of 11 regular tilts, the Bengal yearlings came out on top in 9 of them, losing only twice to the Puyallup sophs. During their competition, the Kittens chalked up a total of 313 points against 252 points scored by the opposition.

At their annual banquet the sophs voted Harry Nygard and Ron Tuttle as honorary co-captains.

The scores of their tilts were: Stadium 23, Clover Park 16; Stadium 18, Puyallup 33; Stadium 36, Clover Park 35; Stadium 26, Bellarmine 23; Stadium 32, Sumner 16; Stadium 39, Lincoln 24; Stadium 29, Sumner 18; Stadium 29, Bellarmine 26; Stadium 31, Lincoln 13; Stadium 22, Puyallup 32; Stadium 28, Bellarmine 16.

RESERVE WRESTLING

Although having only two matches with the Lincoln grapplers for the season's competition, the Stadium reserve matmen came out on top in both, with scores of 38-15 and 38-27. The reserves are usually composed of newcomers to the grappling sport, who gain experience that will benefit them in the next season.

Turning out with the varsity wrestlers, the reserves receive the same conditioning and training, also getting to practice against the first-string matmen. Coach Diettrich and the co-captains direct the novices, showing them the various holds, techniques and all-around "know how" of the grappling sport.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

In order to encourage interest in interscholastic athletics and give all boys who are unable to take part in the regular sports activities a chance to participate, a widely varied intramural program is carried on each semester. Competition in basketball, swimming, track, wrestling, badminton and archery is furnished under the direction of Mr. O'Neel.

Early in the fall semester, a novice wrestling program was inaugurated under the supervision of the wrestling coach and the co-captains, which gave fundamental instructions. A regular match was held at the end of the program to determine the champions.

COACH DIETRICH

VARSITY WRESTLING

Spirited enthusiasm coupled with willingness to learn made this year's wrestling squad one of the best produced at Stadium. The boys' pep and drive surpassed that of any of the teams of recent years.

Large credit for the strength of the squad is due to the guidance and supervision of Coach Diettrich and the co-captains, John Taylor and Stan Olsen. Through their efforts the inexperienced grapplers were shaped into capable performers.

Although losing the city title, the Bengal matmen chalked up a final record of four wins and two losses to rank as one of the top grappling squads of Stadium.

An intramural wrestling program early in the fall, under the direction of Coach Diettrich and the co-captains, did much to encourage interest and promote skill in the sport. This program was responsible for one of the largest turnouts ever had by the wrestling activity.

Each week an elimination tournament is held. It is during these matches that the winners of each weight divisions are put on the varsity squad temporarily, and will represent the school if a match is held during the week.

The Tiger squad opened its mat season with an exhibition match in the Armory before the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the public. The first regular competition came when the squad journeyed down to Vancouver, Wash., to wrestle the School for the Blind team. Coming out on top of that tussle by a 28 to 21 score, the Tigers stopped in at Longview the next day to wallop the Lumberjacks, 43-15. The following week the Longview grapplers came to Tacoma, only to be defeated again by the Bengal matmen, 43-25.

The top victory of the year was the Tiger's 26-18 win over the Lincoln wrestlers when the Lynx invaded the Stadium gym for the first of two contests. The Royals' next match gave them the first black mark on their record as the blind men from Vancouver brought only seven men to the school for competition; the resulting vacancies weakened the Bengal squad and it dropped the match, 15-11.

In the final encounter with the Lincoln grapplers, the Tigers were defeated, 26-17, consequently losing the city high school wrestling title and the huge Cammarano Brothers' trophy. Since the Castle matmen floored the Railsplitters by eight points before, the nine-point margin by which the Lynx won gave them a one-point decision in the series. Stadium has held the title only twice since 1931, in 1938 and 1940. This year's squad came the closest to the championship since then.

At their annual banquet the westlers voted the inspirational award to Roger Lundell and an honorary captaincy to Bill Plummer. Walt Hansen and Bob Curran are co-captains for next year.

VARSDITY SWIMMING

Winning the western Washington, city and state crowns, the Tiger mermen chalked up one of the most impressive records in Stadium's tank history. The Bengals splashed their way to 10 victories in as many starts, and in their meet with Longview they garnered a 60-6 victory, which is the highest possible score obtainable.

In their first meet of the 1945 season, the Tigers swamped the Lincoln team, 51-15, taking all but two first and second places. The following week Stadium mermen invaded the Aberdeen lair for the first of two meets, coming out on top by a 56-10 score. In a triangle contest with the Lincoln and University of Washington frosh teams, the Tigers copped another victory with a 37-17-17 effort. Longview fell, 60-6, and then the all-important meet with the powerful Everett squad came up at the Seagulls' pool, in which, after a nip and tuck affair all the way, the Royals took the 160-yard free-style relay, this giving them a 38-28 victory.

Aberdeen was defeated, 58-8; the U. of W. frosh fell, 46-20; Everett was downed 43-23 in the Tigers' pool, and then Lincoln's 38-28 defeat closed league competition with the undefeated Tigers eying the state meet apprehensively as they had lost there in recent years. The Bengal mermen again proved their power, however, when they edged out the Everett squad, 53-49½, to give Stadium its first state swimming championship in 10 years.

VARSIITY TRACK

With only seven returning lettermen as the nucleus of the squad, Co-Captains Joe Mahoski and Bruce Stewart and Coach Mayer had a full-time job in forming Stadium's 1945 track team. At the time The Tahoma went to press, the thinclads had not participated in any outside competition and were only able to give a minimum amount of work to time trials as the track was under repair.

A regular track meet was held, however, between the senior, junior and sophomore classes, the seniors taking the victory with a total of 68 points, followed closely by the juniors, who chalked up 60, and the sophomores, who were far behind with 14.

All the short distance events were won by the seniors, with Joe Mahoski and Bill Kowalski, junior, taking top scoring honors by copping three first places apiece. Mahoski's firsts were in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash and the broadjump events, while Kowalski's were in the polevault, shotput and discus throw.

In a summary of their strength, the Tigers should have fairly good results in the short distance competition, broadjump, polevaule, shotput and discus, while their weaknesses will probably be in the long distance events, with an even break in the relay and high jumps.

The schedule arranged follows: April 14, Olympia, here; April 20, Bremerton, here; April 28, Olympia-Aberdeen at Olympia; May 4, Everett, here; May 11, Pierce County soph meet; May 18, City League meet; May 26, state meet at Pullman.

VARSAITY BASEBALL

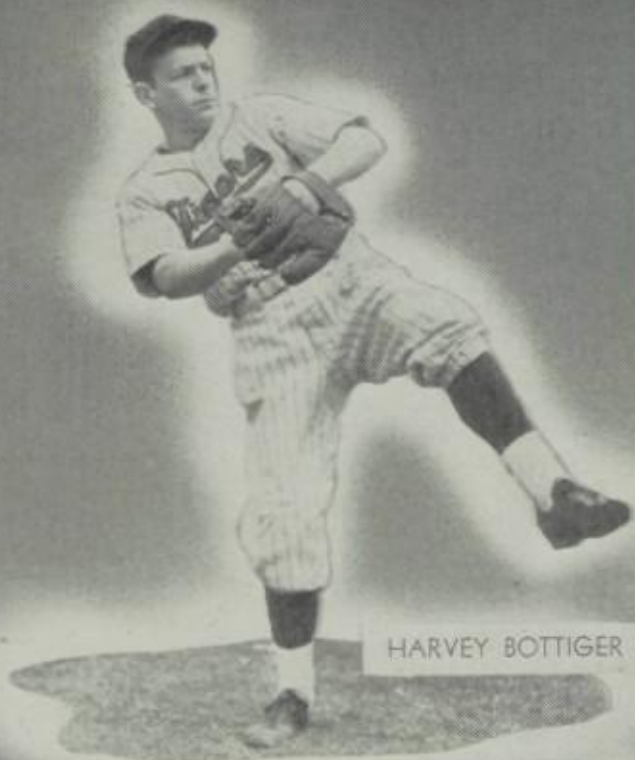

Only three varsity lettermen—Captain Winslow Granlund, Sam Tangora and Tom Baker—were on hand for the 1945 baseball team, which will be somewhat handicapped in the defense of the City and Cross-State League crowns. The host of reserves and sophomores that make up the large part of the squad have shown up during practice drills as promising material, and since The Tahoma goes to press before actual league play is begun, it is hard to tell how the team will shape up. Evidence of the caliber of the novices was given when a complete sophomore squad whipped the Gig Harbor varsity 27-0.

In the catcher's berth, Captain "Windy" Granlund is firmly fixed, with Jack Bitcon and Frank Cooper as relief men. On the mound Harry Nygard, Harvey Bottiger, Hank Semmern and Gib Eaton will share the hurling duties. Over at first base, George Hupe and Philip Phill will be in competition for the position. At second, letterman Sam Tangora will be hard pressed by sophomore Garry Hersey. Milton Gust, Don Danielson and Jim Powers will be battling for the shortstop berth, and in the "hot corner" Bob Durych, Wells Anderson, Jack White and Dave Gago are competing. The outfield will be supported by letterman Tom Baker, Walt Espeland, Ray Spalding, Don Shear, Lew Panico and Don Semmern. Of the 26 players, 19 are either sophomores or juniors, indicating that next year's squad will be amply supplied with able experience.

Training of the baseball team consists of fundamental drills in the catching of grounders, outfield and batting practice which quickens the boys' adaptability to the game. Games between the sophomore, junior and senior groups are also usually slated.

The schedule is as follows: April 20, Lincoln, here; April 24, Bremerton, here; May 4, Bellingham, here; May 11, Seattle Prep, there; May 18, Everett, there.

In the tilts that were played before the Tahoma went to press, the Tigers smeared the Puyallup Vikings, 13-7; lost a 2-1 thriller to the Clover Park Junior Veterans in which Bengal hurler, Harry Nygard, fanned 18 men to hang up an impressive pre-season exhibition; downed the Puyallup nine again, 3-1; and stopped the Fife squad twice with scores of 7-3 and 13-0. Mr. Summers was again the baseball coach.

Hike Leaders

To lead energetic Dianias on their Saturday morning jaunts, 24 senior girls were chosen by the Stadiana cabinet to be hike leaders.

A girl must go on 5 of the 12 hikes held during the fall and spring to earn a point toward her award.

With two leaders in charge of each trek, hikers walk Tacoma's by-ways and urban highways.

HIKE LEADERS

Row 1: Jeanne Miles, Joyce Richardson, Barbara Wahlstrom, Helen Veatch, Marjorie Ness.
Row 2: Charleen Finson, Doris Vollmer, Janet McConnell, Doris Liby.
Row 3: Shirley Jensen, Betty Hansen, Donna Grissom, Nancy Hart, Pat Green, Beverly Roller.
Row 4: Shirley Monzingo, Virginia Skarponi, Phyllis Clapp, Jeanne Williams, Jane Hagen, Phyllis Mernaugh.

Boy Student Leaders

First organized in 1937 as a club, the Student Leaders aid the physical education instructors in teaching the gym students the fundamentals of calisthenics, basketball, swimming, boxing and wrestling. In addition to these duties, however, they also aid in giving strength tests to the sophomores and in various minor duties.

BOY STUDENT LEADERS

Row 1: Laz Politakis, Walt Hansen, Ed Jarvis, Don Shea, Angelos Sarantinos, Caleb Case, Jim Power, Ernest Berg, Bob Hogberg.

Row 2: Roddy Wegner, Dan Shelley, Don Fifer, Bud Oyster, Ted Lomax, Brandt Tennant, Bob Wagnild, John Walters.

Managers

Receiving no glory for his indispensable work, the hard-worked manager goes about his innumerable duties. The boy managers take care of equipment, look after providing towels for the players, keep records, etc. In addition to those tasks, the girl managers referee, supervise and schedule the after-school sports, and direct and test Dianas earning points for hobby sports.

Row 1: Ronald Smith, Ed Carrier, "Cap" Palmer, Laz Politakis, Angelos Sarantinos, Tom Medak, Bob Muntz, Row 2: Betty Mazzoncini, Virginia Skarponi, Virginia Herrmann, Helen Veatch, Bob Barton, Herman Beyer, Jorgen Husby.

Pin Winners

A gold pin, symbolizing three years of activity in the girls' sports program, is the high goal of senior Dianas. This is achieved by working for six points through turning out for after-school and hobby sports.

Each pin winner must have earned her felt and chenille letter in her sophomore and junior year to qualify for the third-year award. Persistent practice, good sportsmanship and a willingness to give of her time and energy enable a girl to reach her aim of the pin award.

Baseball Champs

A senior team captained by Charlotte Nelson claimed the baseball title last year by defeating a junior nine led by Barbara Prechek, 23-10.

The runner-up team is shown because the winners have graduated.

Baseball manager for this year was Joyce Richardson aided by Beverly Downey, Carol Oman, Joanne Peterson and Mary Thompson.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

Row 1: Janice Michnik, Joyce Sheets, Barbara Prechek, Phyllis Mernaugh, Phyllis Clapp.

Row 2: Barbara Swanson, Doris Vollmer, Jane Hagen, Beverly Mullis.

Tennis Champs

A sophomore captured the girls' tennis singles crown for 1944 and claimed a half share as the doubles victor. Eloise York won the singles finals and teamed with Marilyn Powell, then a sophomore also, to take the doubles laurels.

As this year's play-offs were not completed by the time The Tahoma went to press, 1944 winners are pictured.

Manager of the sport this year was Eloise York, aided by Phyllis Kurrell, Jean Washburn and Ann Wegener.

Pat Brown, Eloise York, Marilyn Powell, Ann Wegener.

Speedball Champs

Speedball "arrived" at Stadium in 1939, and since then has become the girls' own game, opening the Diana sports world each September.

Betty Mazzoncini was manager, with Donna Grissom, Nancy Hart, Beverly Mooney and Barbara Swanson as assistants.

A senior team captained by Joyce Richardson captured the championship by trouncing Jeannette Ball's juniors, 28-7.

SPEEDBALL CHAMPS

Row 1: Betty Barkost, Joyce Richardson, Betty Mazzoncini, Marion Long.

Row 2: Fern Tschan, Charleen Finson, Virginia Skarponi, Doris Vollmer.

Volleyball Champs

Teamwork, quick thinking and keen vitality make for a fast championship volleyball team.

Again the seniors win! Barbara Wahlstrom's team downed Joanne Peterson's juniors, 44-26, in the finals.

Barbara Wilson was the volleyball manager this year, with Beth DeMille, Shirley Fields, Charlene Finson and Jean Williams as her assistants.

VOLLEYBALL

Donna Bennett, Shirley Monzingo, Barbara Wahlstrom, Betty Mazzoncini, Maxine Adams.

Badminton Champs

Queen of the badminton court was Marsha York, who defeated Jean Lee in the fall tournament, 11-7, 11-3.

Girls reaching the quarter-finals received a point toward their letter.

Badminton has proved to be an individual sport enjoyed by many, with 52 girls turning out for the fall matches.

Eloise York was manager and her assistants were Phyllis Kurrell and Jean Washburn.

BADMINTON CHAMPS

Ann Wegener, Doris Liby, Marguerite Braaten, Shirley Monzingo, Jean Lee, Marion Long, Marsha York.

Basketball Champs

A hard-fought battle ending in an 8-7 score showed a win for Betty Jackson's junior squad over Jean Washburn's seniors.

Always attracting a larger number of players than any other girls' sport, basketball is "the" game in the Diana sports calendar. This year proved no exception, drawing about 235 girls.

Assisting Virginia Herrmann, manager, were Doris Carlson, Jane Hagen, Marion Lovejoy and Barbara Prechek.

Row 1: Marion Willoughby, Bernie Hathaway, Betty Jackson, Shirley Johnson, Jackie Rycker.

GIRLS' SWIMMING TEAM

Captained by Frances Kitlar, the junior team downed the senior Castle mermaids, 36-31, in the annual girls' swimming meet. The sophomores came in third with 22 points. Marion Long was the senior captain, and Helen Gladstone led the sophs.

First place in diving went to Pat Heinrich, a junior, who totaled 98.7 in that event.

Barbara Wahlstrom, manager, used as her assistants Katherine Falskow, Frances Kitlar and Doris Vollmer.

SWIMMING TEAM

Row 1: Pat Green, Janice Michnik, Doris Vollmer, Marion Willoughby, Jean Lee, Betty Lou Goore, Jean Matthew, Jean McCrea, Dorothy Christoffersen.
Row 2: Louise Sylstad, Ann Wegener, Pat Heinrich, Marion Long, Joan Niesen, Maudie Boyle, Helen Gladstone, Barbara Wahlstrom, Fran Kitlar, Claire Thompson.

OUTSTANDING BASKETBALL PLAYERS

Row 1: Marion Long, Pat Heinrich, Louise Sylstad, Doris Carlson, Donna Grissom, Betty Mazzoncini, Doris Vollmer, Helen Veatch, Betty Cunningham.

OUTSTANDING BASKETBALL PLAYERS

Chosen for their speed, team play, technique and all-around ability, 19 girls were honored as the most outstanding Diana basketball players.

Doris Vollmer was selected this year for the third time.

Laura Adams, Doris Carlson, Betty Cunningham, Betty Jackson, Valerie Kneeland, Marion Long, Barbara Prechek and Louise Sylstad were chosen for the second year.

*Dear Bonnie
You sure have saved
my life several times
in study and for that I am grateful to one small girl. Give me with all the luck &
success in the world.

One of the most important phases of high school days—in fact the most important to some—is the varied school life program. Though one thinks of dances, assemblies and school functions of every academic year as being only entertainment, they do have a hidden value. Associating with others while sharing the fun and trials of life are all a part of school life. "All work and no play make Jack a dull boy"—we combat this by our activities.

FALL CALENDAR

1. Sept. 13-17: Howdy Week was held with Nancy Hart and Paul Fossum as co-chairmen.
2. Bob Lessley designed a new water wagon which was used at the football games.
3. Oct. 20: Class presidents, Jim Clinton, Rolf Falk, Ken Addis, and other officers were elected for the year.
4. Nov. 11: Betty Lou Goore and Gwen Evans were co-chairmen for Sahasa's tolo "Dream Sublime."
5. Nov. 14: Janis Paige, a former Stadion as Donna Mae Jaden, made a short visit as a rising Hollywood star.
6. Nov. 17: Harry Aldrich was one of the many entertainers on Football Night.
7. Dec. 1: Jerry Gordon and Johnny Angus won the prize waltz at the junior prom.
8. Dec. 22: A group of Stadium singers caroled all through the halls preparing Castlites for the Yuletide season.
9. Jan. 12: All shoes were left behind at the Pep Club sock dance.

SPRING CALENDAR

Dear Bonnie,
you asked me not to mention
all those B—'s so I won't.
I never will forget those double dates and — men. Remember!
I always have hoped to do that again only it looks like we never will. How is Jerry, Bob, Betty, and Bob? I wouldn't want to write anything in here you wouldn't want me to so I won't mention
Bob. I hope you have a real nice summer, but I sure hope no more Bobs.

All my devoted Love
Pat Johnson

Dear Bonnie,
We've certainly ^{Love} had a lot of fun
during these many past years and I hope we can have some more sometime, that is if you aren't going steady with some "Bob". Here's hoping you enjoy yourself this summer since I won't be around to draw you.

Love.
Jimmy B.

Dear Bonnie,
Well, drip, another year is gone by and I am the duck. Remember all the fun we've had to get together? B.B., J.M., D.T., B.C., P.W., C.P., J.R., D.W., and K.W. What a life! I wonder who I can add by next year. Here's loads of love to a wonderful? wish!

Bartasa

I see Bonnie,
you know it's a funny thing but I just found out your last name today after a whole half year in the same class. I just hope I can remember it now. I'll meet you some signing time. Will Harold (Hoby) Rogers?

my darling Bonnie,
 I really love you
 lots even if you are mean! Wamma knows
 why I love ya? Well
 I really couldn't tell
 ya - I must be nuts.
 At times I'm really ashamed of you. For instance that night
 at the "poodle dog" boy were you a wolf? Picking on those poor boys from Ballard like that. Let tak! (or something). Oh well, I guess I'd better wish you lots of luck &
 stuff (with boys of course) and hope we'll always be the best o' friends. all
 my weest,
 Gracie

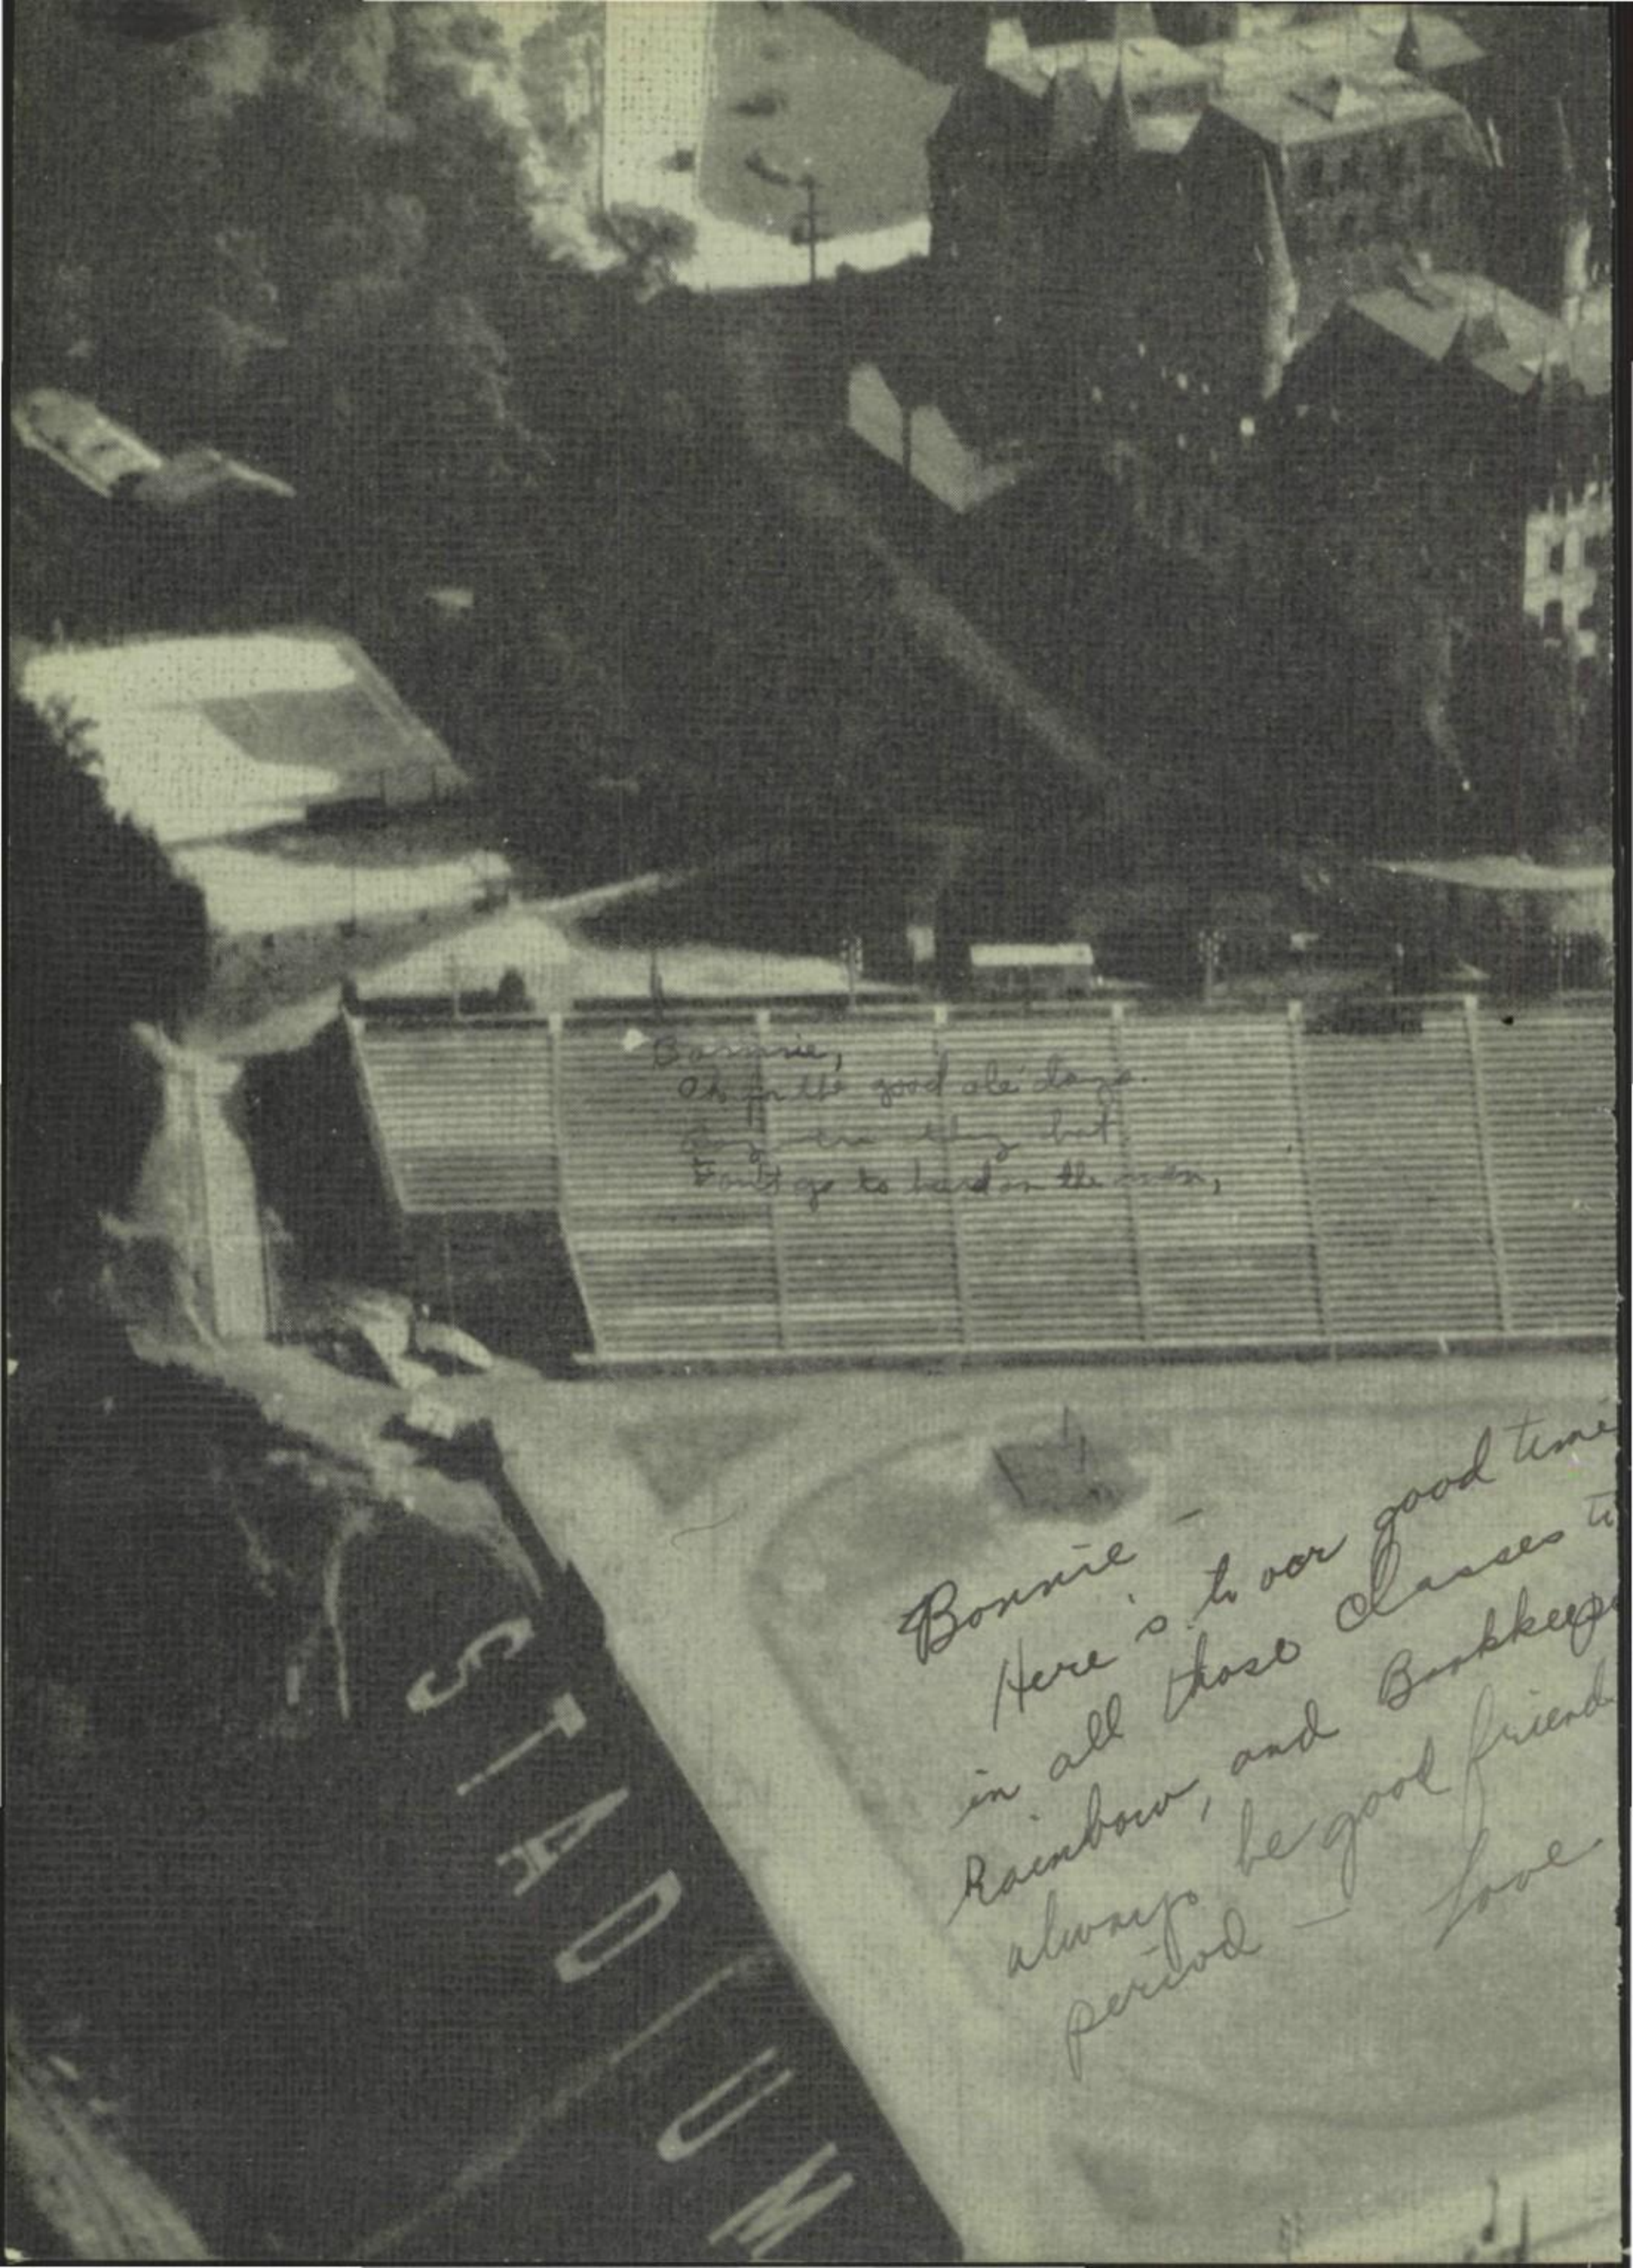

Dearest Bonnie:
 I sure have enjoyed knowing you
 even if we have had some pretty rugged times
 together and I do mean
 it. I hope I see more of you in the years to come.

Dear Bonnie
 I remember
 you way back from Wadsworth days. Art helped remember - now
 it's Home Relations - Jason
 he was more fun
 anyway Bonnie
 lots of luck
 to you. You

Dear Bonnie!
 I wish you all the luck
 and happiness in the world. I hope you are as happy as I am. I love you and I'll always be with you. I hope you'll be a great person.
 Lots of love,
 Gracie

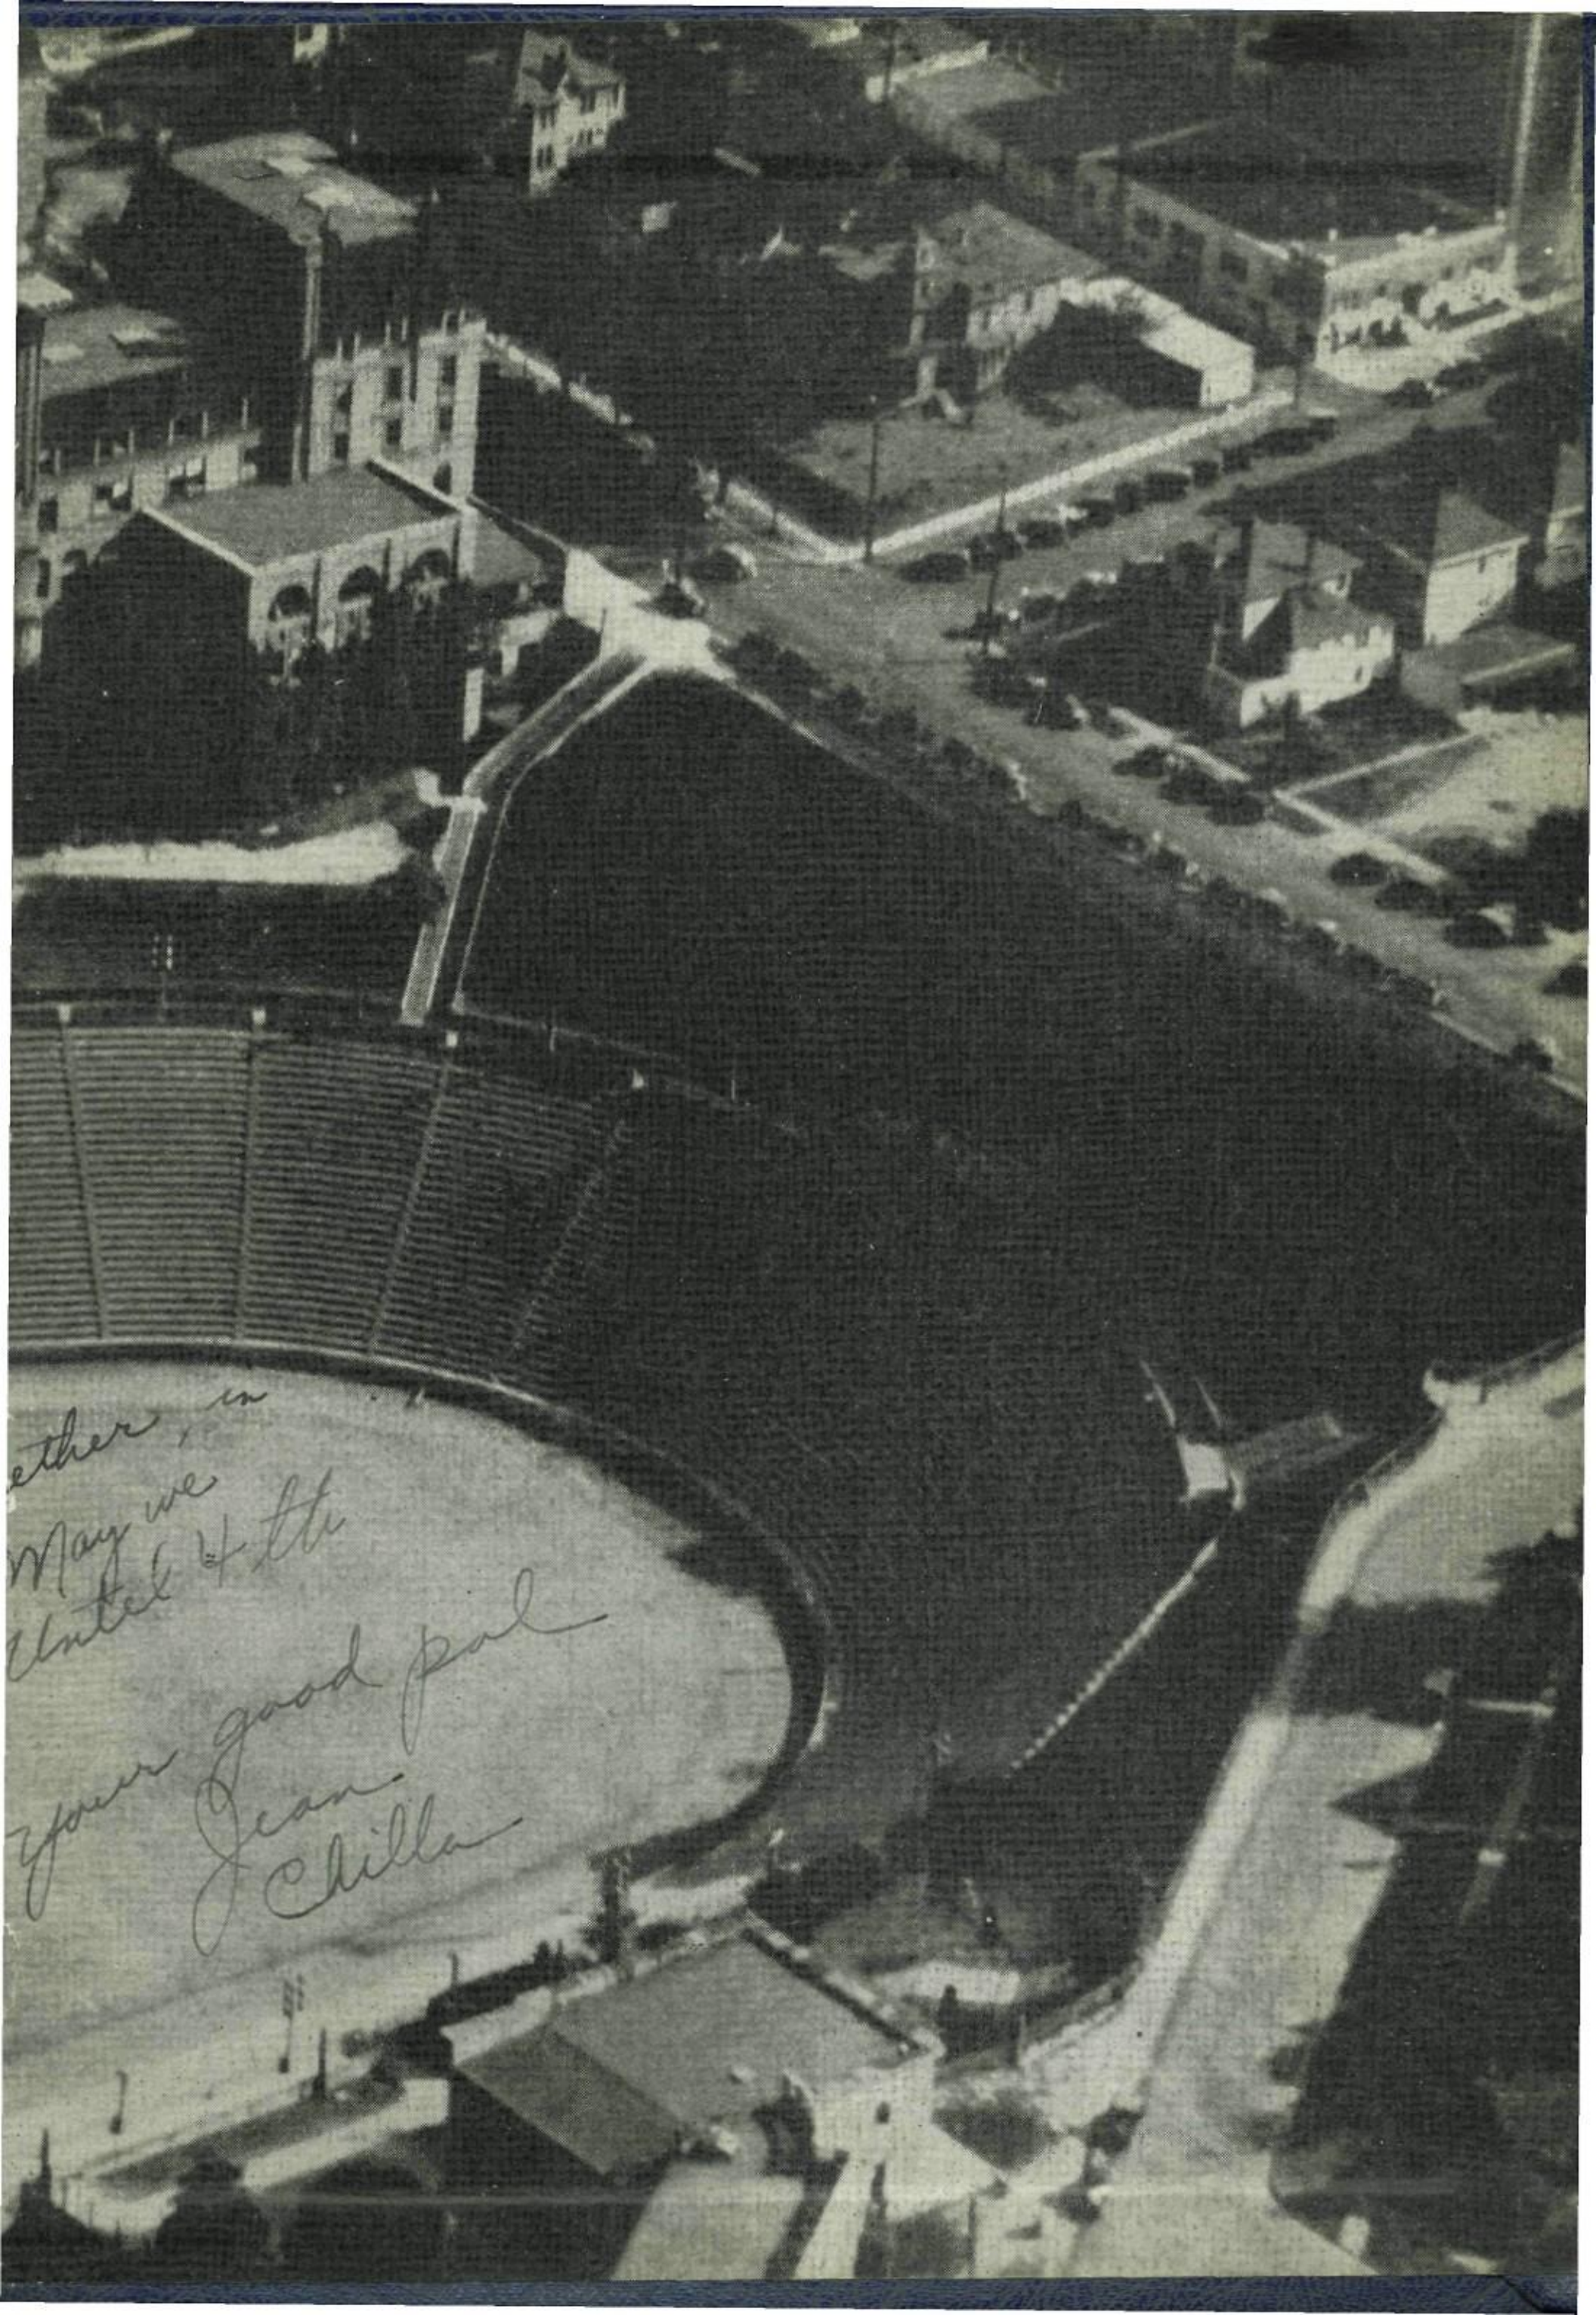

Dear Bonnie,
 Lots of luck in the future. I hope to see you in some of my classes next year.
 Sincerely,
